PACT SUBMITTED TO SENATE; PRESIDENT SOUNDS WARNING

MUST HAVE LEAGUE TO SUPPORT TREATY

President Talks to 1000 Persons, Some Indians, at Bismarck, N. D.

SILK HAT, FROCK COAT NOT WORN IN DAKOTA

Executive Is Much Pleased With Reception Accorded In St. Paul

BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 10.—President Wilson declared here today that the question before America in its consideration of the peace treaty is flatly peace or war. He spoke in the auditorium here, it being a small theater building which was filled but did not hold over 1,000 people. Failure of the treaty will result in dispair that will bring chaos.

"Men in dispair destroy governments," he warned.

The audience was rather quiet. Many typical western figures were in the crowd, some with huge sombreros. There were a number of Sioux Indians sporting white collars and looking natty. Bismarck is the center of the Non-Partisan League country.

When Wilson said America was founded to lead the world to liberty, the crowd gave the first real yell. Another came when Wilson said America was sure to enter the league of nations.

Injuring Whole World

"America's delay is injuring the whole world," Wilson charged.

"The war is over but there is no peace," Wilson said.

He argued against sepaarting the league of nations from the peace treaty. The treaty will not work without the league, he said.

"You dare not kill the young men of the world for a dishonest purpose," he declared, emphasizing that hearings before the league councils would prevent wars.

Two aviators swooped close to the ground as Wilson passed through the streets en route to the auditorium. They looped the loop and performed other feats. A few blanketed Indians in native costume looked on. Wilson abandoned his high hat and morning dress here, wearing a plain soft hat and business suit as being more in accord with the western atmosphere.

President Wilson was greatly pleased with the demonstration in St. Paul last night in favor of quick ratification of the peace treaty and league of nations.

At the close of the president's speech in St. Paul Auditorium, Mayor Laurence C. Hodgson of St. Paul asked those of the 15,000 spectators who were "in accord with the president's views" to say 'aye.' A tremendous shout that reverberated through the building went up. He then called for "noes," but there were few scattering responses.

Going to Montana

The president's only speech today was at Bismarck. The stop there was only two hours, then on to Billings, Mont., and into the country where the I. W. W. have been prominent, to tell the people the treaty should be ratified to settle world-wide economic affairs and prevent spread of bolshevism.

The president had opportunity today to rest from his strenuous labors at St.

Rioting Resumed In Boston today and Troops Ordered

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Rioting was resumed in Scolly square shortly after 1:30 this afternoon. Great crowds were reported moving toward the business section. There was much fighting.

Shortly before 2 o'clock the emergency call which summoned militia to mobilize was sounded on the fire whistles of Cambridge where the 11th regiment will gather. Shortly before 4 o'clock Mayor Peters announced that state troops would begin patrolling the streets within an hour.

At the same time it became known that women employes of practically all stores, offices and factories were being dismissed that they might get home before nightfall.

MUST SPEND TOO MUCH TO KEEP PUBLIC JOB

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Three thousand dollars a year is a good salary in many vocations—but it is inadequate for a city official in San Francisco, according to George E. Gallagher, whose resignation as president of the board of education is due to the high cost of living.

"Its environment," declared Gallagher, insisting the "cost of maintaining appearances befitting the position," makes the holding of an executive public office a losing job at any salary unless the holder has private means.

"To the $100 a month man $3000 a year looks like a fortune," said Gallagher, "but he doesn't consider the manner in which such a man must live.

"He must live in a good neighborhood. He must live well.

"He must take the best places at the theater or be called 'cheap.'

"He must travel in style, living at expensive hotels if he goth away from the city.

"He has to head lists of charities and give respectable amounts.

"He must subscribe liberally to all public subscriptions.

"He is invited out and has to go, representing his place in city affairs.

"He must dress according to the public's estimate of his position. He must drive his own car.

"He must hold up his 'end' wherever he is—at all costs.

"And $3,000 a year doesn't go far now-a-days. There is nothing left in the bank account at the end of the year. I say positively city officials and employes are not paid commensurately with the way they have to live. You've got to figure than $150 a month fifteen years ago was better than $500 a month is today."

NOTICE CORRECTING REFRESHMENT ERROR

Omission today of a line of typewritten copy in the report of the celebration at Orange County Park yesterday, makes the story on Page 1 of Part 2 read as though Fred Seifert, custodian of Orange County Park, had provided the ice cream, lemonade and coffee. The paragraph should read: "these were the refreshments furnished by the committee and in addition there was a soda pop booth operated by Fred Seifert."

The section containing the report of the celebration goes to press first and the error was not detected until the first section was almost ready to go to press.

CEREMONY AT ST. GERMAIN CONCLUDED QUICKLY

Rumainians and Jugo Slavs Are Given Three Days to Sign Pact

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Sept. 10.—In the absence of elaborate details such as accompanied the setting at Versailles, the allies made formal peace with Austria today. Dr. Karl Renner, Austrian chancellor and head of his country's peace delegation, signed the treaty at St. Germain at 10:15 o'clock this morning.

No speeches were made by the Austrian delegates. Premier Clemenceau, on behalf of the allies, invited the Austrians to sign in the same terse fashion he had employed at Versailles before the Germans.

Chancellor Renner was the first delegate to sign. He was followed by Henry White, General Tasker H. Bliss and Frank L. Polk of the American delegation.

Sign Two Engagements

Aside from the peace treaty, the Austrians signed two engagements, one by which they will undertake to indicate allied ships lost during the war which were sunk by the Austrians and another which obliges them to furnish within a month a list of persons responsible for the war, that the allies may place them on trial.

The ceremony of affixing the signatures ended at 11:10 o'clock. French guards presented arms as Chancellor Renner made his exit.

After the signing, the supreme council of the conference announced the Rumanians and Jugo-Slavs would be given three days in which to sign the treaty.

The Stone Age room in the St. Germain palace was the scene of the peace ceremony. In every respect the occasion was greatly overshadowed by the event at Versailles. All the principal European statesmen and military leaders who signed the German treaty had returned home, leaving minor members of their delegations to sign the Austrian document.

No Elaborate Ceremony

There was no attempt, moreover, at an elaborate ceremony or historical setting such as prevailed at Versailles. Owing to the small size of the Stone Age room, only the most limited attendance was permitted. The room was fitted with a horseshoe table similar to the one used at Versailles, with a small table in the center where the delegates signed their names.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, while the Austrian delegates were returning to their hotel, a battery fired 101 shots announcing the conclusion of peace.

NEW YORKERS OPEN ARMS TO FIRST DIVISION

General Pershing Leads Big Victory Parade of 25,000 Young Crusaders

By FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The First Division, first in France and first in battle, today was first in the hearts of its countrymen. This famous unit, led by General Pershing, marched down Fifth avenue in America's "Victory parade."

Over ground hallowed by the blood of their forefathers who gave their lives for American liberty, these 25,000 young crusaders, whose brothers gave their lives for world liberty, tramped through long lines of massed humanity to the accompaniment of resounding cheers. And at their head rode Pershing.

New York had opened its arms to its own divisions—the Twenty-seventh and the Seventy-seventh—but today's ceremony took on a national aspect and the welcome to those units was overshadowed by the reception accorded the First. Intermingled with the hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers were representatives of every state in the Union who had come here to see the First and Pershing.

Like City in France

The parade was scheduled to leave 110th street at 10 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour, Pershing and his staff rode up to the starting point. There the division, in full equipment, was bivouaced with its artillery and kindred engines of war—turning the prosaic avenue and park into a striking replica of a city of war-time France.

At the stroke of the hour "Black Jack" Pershing gave a sharp command, the shapeless mass of olive drab began to assume form. Then the division with the general and his staff at the head, began to move down the avenue with machine-like precision. This was a signal that galvanized the milling crowds into action and a shout went up that drowned the strains of a quickstep which the division band had struck up.

Grim and erect, Pershing gazed fixedly ahead as he rode, seemingly unconscious of the personal tributes showered upon him. His mount, frightened by the noise, became unruly, but the general reined it into quiet submission.

Flags With Pershing

Behind the general rode two noncoms, one bearing the Stars and Stripes, the other Pershing's four-starred pennant.

Then came his staff, followed by the famous "composite regiment" representing practically every unit in the A. E. F., which participated in the London and Paris "victory parades."

More than 1000 wounded men of the First, borne in automobiles, were next in line. They were showered with flowers, cigarettes and candies. There followed rank after rank of infantry, artillery and machine gunners, supply and hospital trains and all other sections of the division. A heavy mist, hovering low, cast a grimness over the moving battalions that the gay decorations and the enthusiasm of the crowds could not dispel.

Fire Believed Incendiary Causes $200,000 Damage To Big Storehouse of P.E.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 10.—Two hundred thousand dollars estimated damage was done early today when fire of unknown origin, destroyed the Pacific Electric Railway Company's storehouse at the company's yards, Seventh and Alameda streets.

The fire was discovered shortly after midnight. It spread rapidly while breaking trolley wires hissing with deadly blue sparks threatened the lives of the firemen whose efforts were taxed to the utmost to control the flames. It was shortly after 2 o'clock before Fire Chief Scott considered the fire controlled.

The electric plant, shops and oil storehouse were threatened with destruction but were saved. The oil storehouse was flooded with live steam. No one was injured during the fire. Only a few workmen were in the yards at the time.

An investigation was started this morning by city authorities to determine the cause. Many believe the fire was incendiary.

Wilson Termed as Quitter By Sen. Johnson In Speech

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The term "quitter" was passed back to President Wilson today by Senator Johnson.

In a bristling speech before the Hamilton club here, the California senator asked to what "game" the president was referring in his St. Louis address and recited the list of American principles he declared European and Asiatic diplomacy had caused to be abandoned in Paris. Senator Johnson did not apply the direct epithet as he commented on the president's reference to the opposition senators as "contemptible quitters if they do not see the game through" but he declared:

"To what game does Mr. Wilson refer? Is it the game he started to play in Europe and did finish or is it the game played for him by European diplomats to which he supinely acquiesced?

"The American people are not quitters. They rose majestically and won a great war. They destroyed a ruthless militarism and they did not quit until they had done the job. When they had played their game and done their job Mr. Wilson commenced his game at Paris and his game was for certain definite objects, certain specific plainly-phrased principles and in the playing of his game, the American people were ready to back him to the utmost and play it through no matter what it cost. Who quit the game?"

Johnson went into the principles of the open covenant, guarantee that national armaments be reduced, impartial adjustments of colonial claims, self determination and no alliances within the league of nations, as principles which he claimed the president had abandoned.

LODGE RAPS LEAGUE AS BREEDER OF WAR

Half of Document Given to Answering Arguments of President

TEXTUAL AMENDMENTS ARE FULLY SET FORTH

Demand For Speedy Action Is Laid to Efforts of Administration

By L. C. MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Accompanied by a six page report, containing sharp and bitter phrases, directed at President Wilson, the peace treaty today was submitted to the senate by the foreign relations committee.

The report was filed by Senator Lodge and represents the views of the majority of the committee. A minority report will be filed by Senator Hitchcock. Half of the report is taken up with a defense of the committee work, criticism of President Wilson, answers to arguments for the treaty advanced by the president and its supporters, and condemnation of the league of nations as a breeder of war.

The remainder deals with the textual amendments and league reservations adopted by the committee.

The demand for speedy action by the committee "was largely the work of the administration and its newspaper organs," the report says, and adds that the same demand was "disseminated by certain great banking firms which had a direct pecuniary interest" in early ratification of the pact.

In part, the report said:

Directed Against Senate

"The character of the clamor for speedy action is well illustrated by the fact that it was directed solely against the senate of the United States and its committee on foreign relations. The treaty provides that it shall go into force when ratified by Germany and by three of the principal Allied and associated powers, which are the United States, France, Great Britain, Italy and Japan.

"Great Britain very naturally ratified at once, but not one of the other four has yet acted. Persons afflicted with inquiring minds, have wondered not a little that the distressed mourners over delays in the senate have not also aimed their criticism at the like shortcomings on the part of France, Italy and Japan, an act of even-handed justice in faultfinding which they have hitherto failed to perform.

"Perhaps it is well also to note and to consider for a moment one of the reasons given for the demand for hasty action which was to the effect that it was necessary to have prompt ratification in order to renew our trade with Germany, for even the most ardent advocate of unconsidered action was able to urge that the channels of trade to the Allied countries were not open.

Emptiness of Peace

"The emptiness of this particular plea for haste, now rather faded, is shown by the fact that we have been trading with Germany ever since the armistice. Between that event and the end of July we have exported to Germany goods valued at $11,270,624. In

Nuxated Iron Helps Make Red Blood

The Kind That Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Force, Strength, and Courage Into the Veins of Men

Watch the People You Meet On the Street—You Can Tell Those Who Have Plenty of Iron In Their Blood—Strong, Healthy, Vigorous Folks

Cut this Out

Sworn Statement of the Composition of the FORMULA of Nuxated Iron

It is conservatively estimated that this remarkable formula is now being used by over three million people annually. Among those who have used and strongly endorse it are many physicians who have been connected with the best hospitals and medical societies, former United States Senator and Vice-Presidential nominee, Chas. A. Towne, of Minnesota; U. S. Commissioner of Immigration, Hon. Anthony Caminetti; Judge Atkinson of the United States Court of Claims at Washington; Wm. L. Chambers, Commissioner of the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation at Washington, and former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of Chicago.

Newspapers everywhere are invited to copy this statement for the benefit of their readers. It is suggested that physicians make a record of it and keep it in their offices so that they may intelligently answer questions of patients concerning it. Everybody is advised to cut it out and keep it. A copy of the actual sworn statement will be sent to anyone who desires such. It is as follows: Iron Peptonate (Special Specific Standard) Quantity given below. Sodium Glycerophosphates U. S. P. (Monsanto). Calcium Glycerophosphates U. S. P. (Monsanto). P. E. Nux Vomica U. S. P. Cascarine Bitter. Magnesium Carbonate Po. Ginger U. S. P. Oil Cassia Cinnamon Precip. U. S. P. Calcium Carbonate Precip. U. S. P.

Each dose of two tablets of Nuxated Iron contains one and one-half grains of organic iron in the form of iron peptonate, of a special specific standard, which in our opinion possesses superior qualities to any other known form of iron. By using other makes of Iron Peptonate we could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost to us, and by using metallic iron we could have accomplished the same thing at less than one-twelfth the cost; but by so doing we must have most certainly impaired their therapeutic efficacy. Glycerophosphates used in Nuxated Iron is one of the most expensive tonic ingredients known. It is especially recommended to build up the nerve force and thereby increase brain power, as glycerophosphates are said to contain phosphorus in that particular state so similar to that in which it is found in the nerve and brain cells of men.

As will be seen from the above, two important ingredients of Nuxated Iron (Iron Peptonate and Glycerophosphates) are very expensive products as compared with most other tonics.

Under such circumstances the temptation to adulteration and substitution by unscrupulous persons, is very great and the public is hereby warned to be careful and see every bottle is plainly labeled "Nuxated Iron" by the Dae Health Laboratories, Paris, London and Detroit, U. S. A., as this is the only genuine article. If you have taken other forms of iron without success, this does not prove Nuxated Iron will not help you.

MANUFACTURERS' NOTE—Nuxated Iron is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. Nuxated Iron is not recommended for use in cases of acute illness, but only as a tonic, strength and blood builder. (In case of illness always consult your family physician and be guided by his advice.) If in doubt as to whether or not you need a tonic, ask your doctor, as we do not wish to sell you Nuxated Iron if you do not require it. If you should use it and it does not help you, notify us and we will return your money. It is sold by all druggists.

Sold in this city by Rowley Drub Co., and all good druggists.

LODGE SUBMITS PEACE TREATY TO SENATE

League of Nations Attacked As Breeder of War In Long Report

the month of June we exported more to Germany than we did to Spain, by orders of the War Trade Board. the provisions of the trading-with-the-enemy act were set asiae by the authorization of licenses to trade. and exports to Germany for the month of July amounted to $2,436,742, while those to Austria and Hungary were $1,016,518.

"It is an interesting fact that exports in June to Germany before the relaxation of the trading with the enemy act were much larger than after that relaxation brought about by allowing licenses was ordered an indication of the undoubted truth that our trade with foreign countries is not affected by the treaty, but is governed by the necessarily reduced purchasing power of all countries in Europe engaged in the war.

"As a matter of fact, therefore, we are trading with Germany, and it is a mere delusion to say that we cannot trade with Germany until the ratification of the treaty. * * * And we can transact all the business we may desire through the good offices of Spanish consuls until a new consular treaty with Germany has been made.

Did Ratification Help?

"Before leaving this subject it may not be amiss to remark that Mr. Lloyd George has recently made two important speeches expressing grave apprehensions as to the social and political unrest and the economic troubles now prevalent in England. He seems to have failed to point out, however, that the ratification of the covenant of the League of Nations by Great Britain has relieved the situation which he had described. He was apparently equally remiss in omitting to suggest that prompt action by the senate of the United States in adopting the covenant of the League of Nations would immediately lower the price of beef.

"In reporting the treaty to the senate for action, the committee proposes certain amendments to the text of the treaty and certain reservations to be attached to the resolution of ratification and made a part of that resolution when it is offered.

"In regard to the amendments generally, it should be stated at the outset that nothing is more groundless than the sedulously cultivated and constantly expressed fear that textual amendments would require a summoning of the peace conference and thereby cause great delay.

"There will be no necessity of summoning the peace conference because it is in session now in Paris with delegates fully representing all the signatory nations, as it has been for six months and it seems likely to be in session for six months more.

Can Be Considered

"Textual amendments, if made by the senate, can be considered in Paris at once and the conference would be at least as usefully employed in that consideration as they are now in dividing and sharing southeastern Europe and Asia Minor, from handing the Greeks of Thrace over to our enemy, Bulgaria, and trying to force upon the United States the control of Armenia, Anatolin and Constantinople through the medium of a large American army.

"Still more unimportant is the bugbear which has been put forward of the enormous difficulties which will be incurred in securing the adhesion of Germany. No great amount of time need be consumed in bringing German representatives to Paris. * * * When Germany enters the league she will take it as she finds it.

"The first amendment offered by the committee relates to the league. It is proposed so to amend the text to secure for the United States a vote in the assembly of the league equal to that of any other power. Great Britain now has under the name of the British empire one vote in the council of the league. She has four additional votes in the assembly of the league for her self-governing dominions and colonies, which are most properly members of the league and signatories to the treaty."

BIND OVER MAN AS OIL DEPOT BANDIT

On the strength, mainly, of the confession he is said to have made to Constable W. N. Carter as he was bringing him from San Diego, where he had been arrested, Preston C. Lamb, said to have been formerly in the aviatoin branch of the service, was bound over to the Superior court on a charge of robbing an oil station at San Juan Capistrano and is today in the county jail in default of $2000 bail, awaiting trial.

R. A. Gibbony, one of the men testifying at Lamb's preliminary hearing, was unable to identify the defendant, but Lamb's alleged confession, together with Gibbony's testimony that he had been covered by a man with a revolver while another, presumably Lamb, went to the till and robbed it of $46, was held sufficient by Justice Cox to hold Lamb to answer.

Testimony was given at the hearing by R. B. Anderson, manager of the San Juan oil station, and also by Sheriff C. E. Jackson. Anderson testified that he pursued two men in an automobile as they were speeding away from the Mission town, but that he lost track of them in the darkness.

WILSON SOUNDS WARNING NOTE TO PEOPLE

He Declares We Must Have League of Nations to Carry Out Treaty

Paul and Minneapolis, where he made three speeches within ten hours.

Members of the presidential party sonsidered the greetings at the Twin Cities the most encouraging the president has had on his tour so far. The party was impressed by the almost unanimous accord of the big crowds in the Twin Cities—strongholds of Republicanism. But it was pointed out that the president's tour is in no way partisan.

Therewere big crowds everywhere, and, unlike some of the throngs the president has met since he left Washington, the people of the Twin Cities did not hesitate to make a noise.

In North Dakota Wilson entered what was believed to be more or less friendly territory. Senator McCumber one of this state's senators, favors the league. The other one, Senator Gronna, is generally believed to be againstit.

Ready to Meet People

Wilson appeared much interested in the vast wheat territory through which the special train carried him and always was ready to meet the people. He seemed anxious not to disappoint anybody and when little groups were gathered at small stations through which the train passed rapidly he almost always stepped out on the rear platform to give them a flourish of his hand as the station dwindled away in the distance. At several stations the people could be seen waving until they were out of sight.

The president is understood to be getting ready for one of his strongest efforts at Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, the home state of Senator Borah, one of the most bitter enemies of the league of nations as it is set forth in the peace treaty.

Wilson will reach Idaho on Friday.

SCHOOLS ENROLL 2396 STUDENTS FIRST DAY

The city schools opened this morning with an attendance of 2396 pupils against 2475 of last year. The Freshman class at high school has a registration of over 300, the largest in the history of the school, with a gain of over fifty from the preceding year.

The total enrollment of each school has been received with the exception of the Mexican schools, which do not open until October 6th, and which will add at least 200 to the total enrollment of the elementary schools, which will show a gain in this year's total over last year's.

Following is the enrollment by schools:

	1919.	1918.
Fifth street (estimated) ..	50	43
Jefferson	189	217
Lincoln	225	208
McKinley	267	227
Roosevelt	258	254
Spurgeon	185	232
Washington	224	194
Intermediate	380	393
Total	2396	2475
High School	718	707
Mexican (estimated)	200
	2596

This shows a gain altogether of 121 students over last year. The high school enrollment alone is expected to run over 800 before the completion of the school year.

WRIT OF ATTACHMENT IS ISSUED BY WEST

A writ of attachment, on file at the office of the county clerk today, has been issued by Superior Judge West against the property of W. H. Bertram, defendant in an action brought by Mrs. W. M. Malmsbury to recover on a promissory note of $1000, alleged to have been signed by Bertram at Yorba Linda on October 27, 1914. The undertaking on attachment is signed by Mrs. E. M. Malmsbury, N. W. PARKING PLACE OPENS UP FOR AUTOISTS

New Business Has Features For Convenience of the Traveling Public

A new business establishment that will be welcomed in Santa Ana by the traveling public and especially by the people over the county who come here frequently in automobiles was opened up this week at the corner of Bush and Third streets by the Central Auto Parking Company, with C. I. Talbott, manager.

Beside affording a convenient parking place for the townspeople and visitors, Manager Talbott has established a well equipped rest room for women and one for men where the dust of the road may be washed off and where mothers may care for their children.

A wash rack for automobiles will be another feature of the business. Auto owners will be permitted to wash their own cars, if they prefer, for a nominal sum.

On the same premises a camping ground for tourists and others has been arranged. This place may be used for any legitimate purpose as the campers desire.

The ladies' rest room and a place in the office building where light refreshments may be obtained will be in the hands of Mrs. Talbott. The Talbotts will make it their chief aim to see that the traveling public is made comfortable and it is likely that the place will become quite popular as the people become accustomed to it.

WILL OF N. Y. WOMAN DYING HERE FILED

A petition for probating the will of Eliza C. Perkins of Newark, N. Y., who died in Orange county on August 26, was filed today on behalf of Chas. C. Perkins, husband of the deceased, to whom property valued at $6389 was bequeathed. Scarborough & Forgy are attorneys for the petitioner.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE OF FRANCHISE

Granting the right to conduct, erect, maintain and operate a line, or lines, of telephone wires by means of conduits or poles with wires attached thereto under, upon, over and along such streets, roads and public highways of the County of Orange as may be necessary or convenient to connect the offices of said association to be hereafter established in any or all of said towns and localities in said county and the places of business and homes of its members with a telephone system for the mutual benefit and interest of the members of Orange County Farmers and Merchants Association, a co-operative business association organized under the laws of the State of California.

To Whom It May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that an application has been made to the Board of Supervisors of Orange County for a certain franchise granting the right to construct, erect, maintain and operate a line, or lines, of telephone wires by means of conduits or poles with wires attached thereto, under, upon, over and along such streets, roads and public highways of the County of Orange, as may be necessary or convenient to connect the offices of said association to be hereafter established in any or all of the towns and localities in said County and the places of business and homes of its members, with a telephone system for the mutual benefit and interest of the members of Orange County Farmers & Merchants Association, a co-operative business association organized under the laws of California; and that it is proposed by the said Board of Supervisors to offer for sale and grant to the highest bidder said franchise upon the terms and conditions herein mentioned. The following is a copy of the proposed franchise, to-wit:

ORDINANCE NO.——

An ordinance granting to Orange County Farmers and Merchants Association, a co-operative business association organized under the laws of the State of California, a franchise granting the right to construct and erect, and for the period of ——— years, to maintain and operate a line or lines of telephone wires by means of conduit, or poles with wires attached thereto, under, upon, over and along any of the streets, roads and public highways in the County of Orange, State of California, now or hereafter established, as may be necessary or convenient to connect the offices of said association to be hereafter established in any of the towns and localities in said County and places of business and homes of its members, with telephone system for the mutual benefit of the members of said association.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That a franchise is hereby granted to the Orange County Farmers and Merchants Association, a co-operative business association organized and existing under the laws of the State of California, to lay and erect and for a period of 25 years, from and after the date of the granting of such franchise, to maintain and operate a line or lines of telephone wires by means of conduits or poles with wires attached thereto, under, upon, over and along such streets, roads and public highways in said County of Orange now or hereafter established, as may be necessary or convenient to connect the various offices of said association to be hereafter established by it at any and all of the various towns and localities in said County, and the places of business and homes of its members, with a telephone system for the mutual use and benefit of the members of said association.

Section 2. That the said franchise will be granted and shall be held and enjoyed only upon the terms and conditions herein contained, and the said grantee must, within thirty days after the passage of the ordinance granting said franchise, file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors a written acceptance of the terms and conditions therein expressed.

Section 3. That said telephone system shall be built in a good and workmanlike manner and of good material and that all wires extending across any street, road or public highway, shall be placed at least twenty-five feet from the ground and that all poles to be erected and maintained shall be of good material and at least four inches in diameter, and twenty feet in height, excepting that poles used in the crossing of any street, road, or public highway, shall be of such height that the wire attached thereto shall be at least twenty-five feet from the ground as aforesaid, and all poles shall be erected, located and maintained along the edge of the streets, roads and public highways so as not to interfere with the use thereof for travel and other purposes, and in conformity with instructions of the Board of Supervisors, and said conduits shall be placed at least two feet under the ground and located and maintained in such a way as not to interfere with the use by the traveling public of such streets, roads or public highways, and in the event that said grantee or assigns fail to comply with the instructions of said Board of Supervisors with respect to the location, erection and maintainence of said poles, wires and conduits, within ten days after the service of written notice upon the said grantee or assigns requiring conformity, then said Board of Supervisors may immediately do the work on said telephone system necessary to carry out said instructions at the costs and expense of said grantee or assigns, which costs, by the acceptance of this franchise, said grantee or assigns agree to pay upon demand.

Section 4. The grantee of this franchise shall have the right subject to such regulations as are now or may hereafter be in force, to make all necessary excavation in said highway for the construction and repair of said conduits, poles, wires, appliances and attachments.

Section 5. That if the said conduits shall be laid along any macadam road in the County of Orange, they shall be placed at the edge of the highway so as not to disturb the macadam surface and in no event shall any conduit be laid across the macadam highway without a special permit from the Board of Supervisors, which permit shall specify the manner in which the conduit shall be laid across the highway, and may provide for the repair of the highway after the conduits have been laid by the officers of the County at the expense of the grantee and upon the presentation of a bill therefor the grantee shall pay the same at once, or in the event of its faliure so to do, this franchise shall thereupon be forfeited.

Section 6. That all conduits, wires, poles, attachments and appliances shall be constructed or maintained in accordance to and conformity with all of the ordinances, rules and regulations, now or hereafter adopted or prescribed by the board of Supervisors of Orange County.

Section 7. That the work of laying or repairing all conduits, wires, poles, attachments and appliances, shall be conducted with the least possible hindrance to the use of the highways for purposes of travel, and as soon as the laying, constructing, erecting and repairing of any conduits, wires, poles, attachments or appliances is completed, all portions of the highway which shall have been excavated or otherwise injured thereby, shall be placed in as good condition as the same was before the laying, constructing, erecting and repairing of any conduit, wire, pole, attachment or appliance, to the satisfaction of the Board of Supervisors of said County, and that any damage or injury suffered by any person by reason of any excavation or any obstruction being improperly guarded during said work, shall be borne by the grantee of said franchise.

Section 8. That the County of Orange reserves the right to change the grade of any highway over which this franchise is granted, and the grantee of said franchise shall at once change the location of all poles, wires, conduits, appliances and attachments laid, constructed and erected hereunder so as to conform to such change of grade.

Section 9. The grantee shall not commence the construction of any conduits under the provisions of this franchise until it shall first have obtained a permit from the Board of Supervisors so to do. Such permit shall be granted upon application of the grantee, which application shall show the following facts. The highway upon which it is proposed to construct or lay the conduits, the length of line of conduits proposed to be constructed or laid on the highway, and such other facts as the Board of Supervisors may require.

Section 10. The grantee shall have the right during the period for which the said franchise is granted, to lay conduits and erect all necessary poles, wires, feeders, service wires, house connections and auxiliary apparatus for the purpose of safely and efficiently operating and maintaining a telephone system among its members, and to transmit sound, signals, conversation and intelligence through and over said wires by means of electricity among its members.

Section 11.—That said Board of Supervisors in granting this franchise does hereby expressly reserve the further right and privilege of installing and maintaining one or two telephone wires upon any poles or in any conduit erected or placed under and by virtue of the franchise herein advertised, said wires to be used by the County of Orange for maintaining a telephone service in the dispatch of County business, and all poles erected, or conduits laid under the authority of this franchise must be erected and laid in such a manner as to leave sufficient space for the proper accommodations of said two wires to be installed and maintained by said County of Orange.

Section 12. That the work of constructing and erecting said poles, conduits and telephone system shall be commenced in good faith within not less than twelve months from the date of the granting of said franchise and shall be prosecuted diligently thereafter in good faith unless enjoined by legal proceedings, and that if said work be not so commenced or prosecuted within the times or in the manner specified said franchise shall be forfeited.

Section 13. That any neglect, failure or refusel to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise shall thereupon immediately ipso facto, effect a forfeiture thereof and the said County by its Board of Supervisors, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited and may exclude said grantee from further uses of the highways of said County under said franchise, and said grantee shall thereupon and immediately surrender all rights in and to the same and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Section 14. That whenever any portion of the territory covered by this franchise shall be included within any municipal corporation the rights reserved under this franchise to the County of Orange or any officer thereof, shall inure to the benefit of such municipal corporation and its appropriate officers.

Section 15. The grant of this franchise is effective only upon the further condition that the grantee has now, and shall at all times during the life of this franchise keep on file with said Board of Supervisors, a bond running to said County in the penal sum of One Thousand $(1000) Dollars, with at least two good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the said Board of Supervisors, conditioned that said grantee shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of said condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond be not so filed and kept on file this franchise shall be void and of no effect, and any money paid therefor or thereunder will be forfeited. In the event that said bond shall at any time during the lifetime of this franchise become insufficient, the grantee of this franchise, by accepting the terms and conditions thereof, agrees to renew said bond with good and sufficient sureties within ten days after notice from said Board of Supervisors so to do.

This ordinance shall take effect thirty days after the date of its adoption and prior to the expiration of fifteen days from the passage hereof, shall be published for at least one week in the Santa Ana Daily Evening Register, a newspaper printed and published in the County of Orange, State of California, together with the names of the members of the Board of Supervisors voting for and against the same.

Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, State of California.

Attest:

County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, California.

Notice is therefore hereby given that sealed bids in writing will be received at the office of said Board of Supervisors for said franchise up to two o'clock in the afternoon of the 16th day of September, 1919.

That the bids received will be opened at that time, that all bids received must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States and that the franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; provided that at the time of opening said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation, present or represented, may bid for said franchise a sum not less than 10 per cent. above the highest sealed bid therefor, and that said bid so made may be raised not less than 10 per cent. by any other responsible bidder and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded by said Board of Supervisors to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States; provided further that said Board of Supervisors may in its discretion, reject all bids received for said franchise.

Each sealed bid must be accompanied with cash or a certified check payable to the County Treasurer of the County of Orange, for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid will be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith; and the successful bidder must deposit at least 10 per cent. of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of said County before said franchise will be struck off to him and if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately his bid will not be received and will be considered as void and said franchise will then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure will be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least 10 per cent of the amount of his bid as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the County Clerk within twenty-four hours after the acceptance of his bid the remaining 90 per cent. of the amount therefor, and in case he or it fails to do so then the said deposit heretofore made will be forfeited and the awarding of said franchise will be void and said franchise will then and there by said Board of Supervisors be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder fails to deposit with the County Clerk the remaining 90 per cent. of his bid within twenty-four hours after its acceptance the awarding to him of said franchise will be set aside and the deposit therefor made by him will be forfeited and no further proceeding by the sale of said franchise will be had until the same shall be re-advertised for sale.

Notice is hereby also given that the successful bidder for said franchise must, within five days after said franchise is awarded to him or it, file with the said Board of Supervisors, a bond running to said County in the penal sum of $1000.00 with at least two good sureties to be approved by said Board of Supervisors, conditioned that said bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond be not so filed, the awarding of said franchise will be set aside and any money paid therefor, will be forfeited.

By order of the Board of Supervisors.

Dated this 2nd day of September, 1919.

T. B. TALBERT,

Chairman Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange, State of California.

Attest:

J. M. BACKS,

County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Orange County, California.

THE SCHOOL YEAR

Today is a day that is of unusual interest to a large proportion of the residents of Santa Ana, for today school opened. Today the children, vacations over, are back in the schoolrooms and before them lies another year's study, another year's development of their minds and bodies.

Just what shall be done in school work and in the development of the children is a matter of consequence to every parent and to every teacher. It is a matter for serious thought for both parents and teachers. Too many parents leave the whole job to the teachers. It is the child of the parent who reaches an understanding of what the schools are trying to do and who, through discipline at home, through seeing that the child gets a proper amount of sleep, all of the fresh air possible, healthful food and encouragement who is going to get the most out of this year's school life.

Co-operation is a tremendous force. Without it, many enterprises fail, and many others have not the degree of success they should have. So it is to be this year in school work. Co-operation of an understanding nature, on the part of the teacher to be helpful and kindly in her shaping of the child's life, on the part of the parent to recognize a child's shortcomings, will bring big results. Failure to co-operate will mean a loss of achievement, perhaps, or failure to get as much out of the year for the children as there is to be had.

Santa Ana has good schools. It has a conscientious, able management. Its methods are designed to bring the best results. There is a recognition of the practical side of school life, an understanding of the fact that many pupils will have no opportunity for education other than the opportunity given here at home. There is a recognition of the requirements of the state school system. The schools stand high in state educational circles. There is a conscious effort being made to make the schools fit the needs of Santa Ana, and it is through a recognition of the practical needs of students and a conscious effort to meet those needs that the greatest success can be attained in school work.

The coming year ought to be the biggest and best year in the history of the Santa Ana schools, so far as progress in school work is concerned. The stress and strain and effort incident upon the war are things of the past. It is not likely that there will be another visitation of the influenza this year. The enrollment is big, and school has opened with a fine corps of teachers in each of the schools. There is achievement ahead. There will be tedious days for the children, of course, and trying days for teachers, though Santa Ana, as a rule, has few of those misunderstandings. Through it all, let there be a spirit of co-operation and helpfulness, a devotion to the work that is in hand, and the year will, indeed, be a great year in the lives of the many hundreds of children who today returned to school after the summer's vacation.

BIG SAVINGS STAMPS

The War Savings plan has been regarded rather superciliously by some people. It seemed a petty thing to invest mere quarter-dollars in Thrift Stamps and then turn a collection of them into a mere $5 Savings Stamp.

This was the exceptional view, fortunately. Enough people have taken the plan seriously to pour more than $1,000,000,000 into the United States treasury. But now an appeal is being made to the disdainful folk who, if they must save money, want to save it in more than quarter-dollar or five-dollar units.

The Treasury Department has issued, and is now placing on sale in the postoffices, new Savings Certificates of $100 denomination. They will bear interest at the usual rate, and are subject to the same conditions of redemption as the smaller stamps.

Along with them there is a new $1,000 certificate which will be sold only at the banks.

With these inducements, there ought to be a rapid rise in Uncle Sam's thrift fund.

TO KEEP WELL

Here are some simple rules, clipped from an exchange, promulgated principally as safeguards against the flu, but equally valuable as a preventive of all forms of ill health:

"Sleep with the windows open.

"Drink a glass of water for every waking hour.

"Eat less of concentrated foods and more of fruits and vegetables, and keep just a little on the hungry side of the appetite.

"Keep clean inside and out.

"Relief for constipation is in the drug store, but its prevention is in orchard and garden.

"Walk at least a part of the way to and from work, and keep in the open as much as possible.

"Practice deep breathing.

"Do not become frightened at first symptoms of flu (or any illness). The fear of disease weakens resistance.

"Do not get angry or entertain resentment toward any one. Anger and hate create poisonous toxins and lead to a lowering of the general health."

To these might be added one more—avoid fatigue. Make up for every overstrain by an extra amount of rest at the first opportunity. Fatigue is in itself a dangerous condition.

The laws of health are simple. It is the complicated lives of people which make them a prey to sickness.

Veterans

San Bernardino Sun

National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Columbus, O., this month should receive attention from the entire nation. It is being looked forward to by the veterans as the "last big meeting," and it is fitting that the last should be the greatest in expression of public interest. In the more than 50 years since the Civil War the ranks have thinned, and they are decreasing now with increasing rapidity. In not many years the Grand Army of the Republic will be an institution of cherished memory.

It is gratifying that younger veterans are to attend the gathering at Columbus. Here age and youth who have fought for their land may join in common purpose to preserve the traditions of the fighting forces. Thus the men of '98 and of '18 may receive the sobering benediction of the heroes of the '60's and in turn inspire their forbears with proof that the spirit of America flames as brightly today as ever.

We shall not have many more opportunities to honor the men who wore the blue; we should seize the present moment. But no word can bring greater joy than the knowledge that their mission is perpetuated by the stalwart veterans of the Marne and Aisne and Meuse. After all, it is deeds, not words, that count.

The Kaiser's Indemnity

Riverside Press

The Prussian mind continues unfathomable. Here we find the Prussian government soberly proposing to pay the former kaiser 170,000,000 marks, which ordinarily would amount to over $40,000,000 in American money—and for what? A mere non-Prussian would never guess. To compensate Wilhelm for the "civil losses" he incurred by reason of his abdication and flight.

Those losses, apparently, consist mainly of taxes which would have been paid to Wilhelm if he had kept his job. It is said that the Hohenzollerns are being permitted to retain the ownership of their various castles in Germany.

The kaiser indemnified for abdicating! Here we have, indeed, another strange manifestation of the German mind. If Wilhelm had been fined for not abdicating long before he did, if he had been stripped of all his possessions in partial compensation for the incalculable wrongs he has done his country, we could understand it. But that the Germans should fine themselves, in their own bitter poverty, to enable the chief author of their ills to end his days in luxury and magnificence—it passes comprehension.

After this, the Allies can collect their war indemnity from Germany with a clear conscience. They certainly have as good a right to it as the kaiser has.

Intelligent Boosting

Pasadena Star-News

California should be boosted steadily, intelligently, widely. But never should it be fictitiously boomed. He who would exaggerate or mislead as to any resource or opportunity in this state, is no real friend of California. The truth, and nothing but the truth, should feature all promotion of this state.

OBSERVATIONS

Profiteering is a process calculated to make the world unsafe for plutocracy, when once the people get busy about it.

If the workingmen all agree not to strike for higher wages and the profiteers all agree to lower prices, we shall know that the millenium is here.

GROANS AND GRINS

The Chief Sufferers

"The striking actors are serene and confident."

"Apparently so."

"The managers don't appear to be worrying."

"On the surface they are calm."

"The public seems to be taking a good-humored view of the situation."

"All your observations, I dare say, are correct, but you forget the hapless playwrights. Caught between opposing fires, they have nothing to gain and everything to lose. They are the fellows who are lying awake at night trying to think up a plan to end the war."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"To School, To School, To Follow the Rule"

A Day Worth While

Yesterday's demonstration for the war service men and women of Orange county was all that was hoped for it. It was that, and a great deal more.

There was gathered together the biggest crowd ever gathered together in Orange county. Good fellowship and good nature prevailed. The smoothness with which the various events of the day were carried through speaks in itself a mountain of congratulations for those who had the day in charge.

We believe that the message of the day was carried to the service men. It was planned that through this day, the men who had gone to war willing to die if need be would have impressed upon them the fact that their service had not been a thing apart from the thoughts and good wishes of the people at large. It was hoped that this message would leave upon the service men and women the lasting impression of deep appreciation.

Orange county was whole-souled in its interest in the war. It sent its men to war willingly, and at home every bit of strength was thrown into doing what could be done at home to win. We rallied 'round the flag. We are prouder of it today than ever before. We are today prouder of our soldiers than we have ever been.

From yesterday's gathering comes a feeling of unity, a feeling of the county's community spirit, and from that meeting will come influences that will bring all parts of the county closer together than ever before.

It proved to be a day many times worth while.

The Fall and Winter Rains

Will soon be here, and we hope there will be enough to soak the ground deep; but we don't want it to soak into the roof and rot the shingles. So the best way to protect them is to give the roof a good coat of paint. It is economy—so don't put it off until the rains begin.

The Public Utility as an Investment

The very life blood of any community is its supply of water, electricity, gas, and its transportation system. Imagine the terrible calamity the sudden loss of these necessities would mean.

With a full appreciation of the public dependence on these commodities, the people of the State of California have placed the complete regulation of all utilities in the hands of the Railroad Commission.

These Commissioners, five in number, are appointed by the Governor. All rates are subject to approval and before ordered are subjected to most exhaustive investigation by Railroad Commission experts. No stocks or bonds can be issued without sanction. Every dollar received from securities sold must be accounted for. These matters are a guarantee of a square deal to consumer and security-holder alike. The Railroad Commission has always allowed a fair return on invested capital and has placed rates at a point to be absolutely fair to the consumer.

The securities of a company thus protected and controlled offer unusual investment opportunities.

WE RECOMMEND THE FIRST PREFERRED 6% CUMULATIVE STOCK OF THE PACIFIC GAS & ELECTRIC COMPANY, AT $89 PER SHARE, TO YIELD 6.74%.

Was On Hand With Call.

John Bruns arrived at home yesterday from Letterman hospital, San Francisco, with his discharge. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bruns of North Broadway and was gassed in France, later suffering from a severe attack of influenza.

He has been in Letterman hospital the past three months and is now in good health.

It is reported that the young soldier stopped over in San Luis Obispo, arriving there shortly after midnight. Just as he arrived in his room, he received a telephone call to congratulate him upon his release and extend him a welcome.

Presented With Ring.

With the end of the G. A. R. rush conditions and return to normal again at the Santa Fe with no more over time, plenty of time to celebrate Agent F. T. Smith's birthday was given yesterday morning.

Harry Baade, speaking for the employes, presented Mr. Smith with a hnadsome ring as a token of the regard in which he is held by them all, and after giving Mr. Smith three big cheers for a long life filled with success, two of the boys, Martin and Frank Biggs, both returned service men, left for the celebration at the park, where Martin Biggs assisted the Knights of Columbus in distributing smokes for the boys.

Later they both joined the picnic given for Mr. Smith as the office was closed in the afternoon in order that they might do honor to the war heroes.

Happy Birthday Surprise

Last Monday evening marked one of the most delightfully successful events that has occurred at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Leonard, at 2215 North Broadway. It was in the nature of a birthday anniversary surprise party for Mrs. Leonard.

That the affair culminated in the most positive and complete surprise, was visibly evident in the emotions of the one so surprised and honored. To put it mildly—everyone shared the joys of the evening, from youth down the scale of life to old age. But, there were no "old" people in evidence, since the thrill and the spirit of youth dominated the hearts and reflected in the faces of all those present. There may seem to be a somewhat mournful or pathetic side to birthdays—never-the-less that there need not be was surely proven by the fact that if there is anything like a "Fountain of Youth," it was being successfully demonstrated upon that particular occasion. Good cheer and humor were the reigning qualities of the evening. Even the flowers emitted smiles and sunshine in their innocent beauty—and joy and hope by their charming fragrance.

Then to cap the climax, refreshments were served and thus one more eventful chapter of life's real joys for Mrs. S. F. Leonard was closed.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fine and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gammell and daughter, Mrs. N. H. Leonard and daughter, Frances, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marshall and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beemer and family, Miss Lillie Osborne, Mrs. A. J. McArthur and Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Bechtel and daughter.

Theatre Party

Mrs. Charles Brown of Red Hill, Tustin, was hostess Saturday afternoon at a theatre party for the officers of the Eastern Star. Following the afternoon's entertainment the guests motored out to Mrs. Brown's home, which had been artistically decorated in variegated dahlias of rich hues. Large baskets and jardiniers held the bright flowers, relieved with sprays of asparagus fern, arranged in the room, and in these pleasant surroundings the guests enjoyed an hour or so of chatting and music over the light refreshments.

Present were: Mmes. A. N. Zerman, G. A. Whidden, H. T. Trueblood, A. H. Paterson, Sherman Evans, M. B. Lacy, W. L. McCleery, W. W. Clevenger, J. W. McCormac, George Balderstron, C. C. Violett, J. R. Goodwin, Annie Gale, C. V. Doty, L. M. Forcey, W. V. Whitson, F. C. Rowland, Gail and Misses Flossie Zerman, Hattie Whidden, Ramona Clevenger, Daisy Williams and the hostess, Mrs. C. D. Brown.

To Have Nice Trip

W. L. Duggan is one of the agents of the New York Life Insurance Company who has written $200,000 worth of business for the company, entitled to attend the $200,000 Club convention to be held at Del Monte, California. All of his expenses are to be paid by the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Duggan and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Duggan, will leave in their automobile tomorrow for the North. The convention will last four days and is in the nature of a school of instruction for the agents, who will go from all over the United States.

Following the convention, the party will visit at San Jose, Santa Cruz and Stanford University. They will return September 21.

PERSONALS

B. H. Sharpless, Monroe Sharpless, A. J. Lasby, Orlyn Robertson and Harold Sharpless and Paul Jackson, both of Whittier, who left recently on a hunting trip to Oregon, have already found good hunting as Monroe Sharpless brought down a four-point deer at Placerville. The party will be gone about a month.

C. H. Potts left yesterday for Redlands, where he will remain a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wiesseman, Misses Violet and Helen and Carl Wiesseman are enjoying a vacation at Newport. They are occupying the Charles Robinson cottage.

Miss Kathleen Whelan has gone to Douglas, Ariz., to continue her teaching in the Clauson school.

Misses Dorothy White and Myrtle Penn were taken up in the aeroplane for a ride over the city Monday afternoon by Lieut. Remelin and Lieutenant Curtis.

Mrs. Clare Johnson visited with friends in Los Angeles today.

Frank Heil and daughter, Miss Frances Heil, left today for Riverside, where they will make their home for the school year. Miss Frances Heil returns to her work in the Girls' High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cope of Omaha, Neb., who were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cooke, of 1021 North Ross, are leaving for their home today.

Will J. Lindsay left on Monday for the East, where he will visit his brothers and sisters in St. Louis and Southern Illinois. He has not seen them for fifteen years and the reunion will be a most happy one. Mr. Lindsay will be absent two months.

Miss Marie Lederman returned yesterday from Grand Island, Neb., where she spent the summer with friends and relatives.

Floyd Geyer has received his discharge from the navy and has returned to Santa Ana, where his father and sister reside. He expects to go to Calexico, to resume the work he was doing when he went into the navy.

C. Y. Martin left on Monday for Cleveland, O., where he will visit his son, Glenn L. Martin, aeroplane manufacturer. Mrs. Martin, Sr., is now visiting at Cleveland. From Cleveland, C. Y. Martin will go to Columbiana county, Ohio, where he was raised. He wants to see who is left there that he knows, and get a look at the old home and the old swimmin' hole.

Miss Florence Burkheimer, niece of C. Y. Martin, has reached her home in Seattle, where she is teaching school. In order to get home by school opening, she had to travel from Big Bear Lake to San Francisco by stage, having started home during the strike.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cryer visited with Mr. and Mrs. D. Miller yesterday, returning to their home in San Pedro today.

AUTUMN STYLES

in Suits, Dresses & Coats

Never—and we say it advisedly—have we shown a more desirable and perfectly selected assortment of women's apparel than has been assembled for the fall of 1919. And don't imagine for a moment that it has been an easy task. The market has been unsettled. Goods have been scarcer than hen's teeth. Many of the better qualities of cloth were almost impossible of securing. In spite of difficulties and by virtue of our great knowledge of the market and the power of ready cash, we have assembled a great and beautiful stock, which is now ready for your inspection. We can only mention below, a few of the salient styles.

Latest Modes in Dresses

Fashion's Smartest Mode in navy blue tricotine with gray angora collar. Designed with straight Princess lines, countless buttons with silk embroidered arrow heads terminating with a finishing touch the pleating of the waist in the back and front. Shirt finished with checker pin-tuck flounce.

(See this model in our window)

A charming effect in Midnight Blue tricotine. This dress is elaborately embroidered in the new saddleback braid and dainty bead work. A feature of this design is the new bell sleeve.

(See this model in our window)

HEATHER SCARFS

Something new and nobby in light wraps. Especially distinguished by unique, yet very attractive, shades and color combinations.

SWEATERS

We have the very latest in this garment. Shetland wool with angora cuffs and scarf collars in same material. They are beauties.

Many new models for the children and misses school wear. Also many pleasing styles for the ladies.

Coats and suits are especially pleasing and break away from the dull shades and straight lines of war times. Very attractive and pleasing materials in the new shades.

THRONG ATTENDS WALTERHOUSE SERVICES

Touching Memorial Is Held For Tustin Druggist, Victim of Sea

TUSTIN, Sept. 10.—A more impressive Sunday morning service was never held in Tustin than that of last Sunday in the schoolhouse auditorium in memory of N. G. Walterhouse. The hall was beautifully decorated with pink roses and ferns and was filled with a quiet audience of Tustin's good people. A quartet from the Presbyterian church choir who sang was comprised of Misses Margaret Tingley and Lillian Martin, W. A. Jones and S. E. Tingley, with Miss Valeda Willard, accompanist.

The meeting opened with the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." Rev. W. S. McDougall introduced Attorney Clyde Bishop of Santa Ana, who represented the K. of P. lodge members in speaking of the work of the brother knight who had passed from their midst. An eloquent tribute was paid to his alert and ever-ready response to the touch of "the golden chord of friendship, charity and benevolence."

Mr. Bishop's well-chosen words gracefully voiced the thoughts which every manly knight wished to express regarding the life of Mr. Walterhouse among them.

Miss Margaret Tingley sang, as a solo, "A Little While," and the choir sang "Saved By Grace."

Rev. McDougall's address for the people of Tustin, which followed, was none the less eloquent of the homely kindnesses of Mr. Walterhouse, which came so naturally as to be almost unnoticed until the striking manner of his death brought them uppermost in the minds of the people. Mr. McDougall said no advantage was ever taken in times of weakness and sickness, which would have been such an easy thing to do, but to give a little more than justice to each and all for the sake of courtesy, seemed to be the keynote of the character of the popular druggist.

The services closed with the song, "Sweet Peace the Gift of God's Love."

GARDEN GROVE BRIEFS

GARDEN GROVE, Sept. 10.—A very enjoyable evening was spent at the Methodist parsonage Thursday by the Foreign Missionary Society, it being their annual mite-box opening. Rev. and Mrs. Welbon of Santa Ana, lately returned from the mission fields of Korea, were present and gave a very comprehensive report of the field of work. Several choice musical numbers were given. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anderson were treated to a pleasant but genuine surprise Friday evening when their neighbors tendered them a farewell reception on the eve of their departure for their new home at Eighth and Acacia streets, Garden Grove. A delightful evening was enjoyed and ice cream and cake prepared by the self-invited guests were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Tournat and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Richardson and grandson, Leslie, Mr. Habbach and sisters, Miss Walters and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Preston and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lake and daughters, Miss Eva, and little Miss Myra, motored to Warner Hot Springs Friday, going to San Diego Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Houghton and daughter, little Miss Iola, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. C. K. Lee.

H. G. Houghton came down from Santa Susana Friday expecting to return Monday with his wife and daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Houghton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nimmo. They will visit for a few days with Mr. Houghton's sister, Mrs. Callahan, who owns a ranch across the road from them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brackman and family were Saturday visitors at the home of Mrs. Brackman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anderson. They had been spending the summer at Redondo and were returning to their home in Imperial Valley.

Mrs. Charles George and daughter, Miss Sypha, arrived Saturday from Prescott, Arizona to spend the winter with Mrs. George's mother, Mrs. F. Henrichson. Miss Sypha will enter school for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson and family of Imperial spent several days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Anderson. In company with their parents they spent Friday at Redondo. They returned to Whittier Saturday.

WINTERSBURG and SMELTZER

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, Sept. 10.—Next Monday, September 15th, is the opening day of the school term at Oceanview school. New teachers fill the positions of principal and primary teachers, the faculty being as follows: Prof. Boydon Hall, Miss Ethel Dwyer, both of Westminster; Miss Ruth Jordan of Fullerton, and Miss Eastman of Orange.

Mrs. Henry Winters, her little daughter, Hazel, and brother, Ivy Winters, and wife, returned Sunday evening from a pleasant motor trip to Modesto, where they went a few weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are remaining for a visit at the Winters home prior to leaving for the return to their home at Phoenix, Arizona, and Mrs. Winter's sister, Miss Nettie Wilson, who returned from Modesto with the party, is also a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham were here from Puente Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burgess.

Miss Grace McMillan resigned her position as morning operator at the Smeltzer Home Telephone exchange office last Saturday. For nine years she had given most efficient service to patrons of the exchange, who are, indeed, sorry to see her give up her position. Mrs. Linnie Walton, who was also in the company's service for several years, has taken the morning shift and is being welcomed back by friends on the exchange. Mrs. Walton is driving to and from her home at Westminster to the office.

On Saturday evening a delightful outing was spent by a large party, composed exclusively of families of the immediate Smeltzer neighborhood. After a pleasant motor trip to Huntington Beach, the party assembled on the sand, where a big campfire was built and several pleasant hours of conversation were enjoyed, interspersed with a weiner roast, with ice cream, cookies and watermelon. Those in the jolly party were Mr. and Mrs. Clauson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Breeding and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Houser and baby daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Heller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Draper and family.

Miss Ethel Dwyer was hostess at a lawn party at her home Friday evening, at which a large party of friends including those of the community of high school age and older were guests. About fifty were present. Interesting outdoor games by moonlight formed delightful entertainment, and later a tempting luncheon of sandwiches, cookies and punch was served.

Miss Jennie Ufford is spending a few days as the guest of Miss Ethel Graham and later in the week they will go to Los Angeles to make final arrangements for entering Berkeley college the 15th.

Mrs. H. O. Ensign underwent a minor operation in Santa Ana Monday, her tonsils being removed.

Mrs. Alford's sister, Mrs. Lyons, who is in a critical condition from cancer at her home at Bakersfield, has undergone no radical change since Mrs. Alford's recent return from her beside, but she continues to gradually grow weaker, according to the latest report received.

Miss Ethel Graham was the guest of Miss Ethel Morgan Sunday night.

Mrs. Mary E. Clemens and daughter, Miss Ina, spent Sunday in Santa Ana as guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. L. Teneick, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan entertained as Sunday guests at their home Mr. and Mrs. John Nankervis and family of Westminster.

Mrs. Ed. Hyder is somewhat improved after a severe spell of sickness, from which she suffered several days this week.

Messrs. Reuben Clemens and Elmer Gothard drove to Fallbrook Saturday and returned home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cady and family and Mr. Cady's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rogers, of Santa Ana, were away on a few days' camping trip at San Juan Hot Springs the latter part of the week. The party left here Thursday and returned Sunday evening, having enjoyed the quiet vacation. They occupied a tent while at the springs.

Roy Ross, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Ross, is quite ill at present. He had not been well for some time and his condition has gradually grown worse.

Miss Juanita Isenor, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Culver, went to Los Angeles Monday to see about entering Normal school. The young ladies returned home the same evening.

Ruth, the three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ketter, has been relieved of the splints which have been confining her limb since it was broken a few weeks ago. The bone knitted very quickly and the little girl is able to be about some now, but she is being kept off her feet as much as possible as a precaution.

Prof. and Mrs. H. O. Ensign went to East Newport Saturday with Mrs. E. M. Fox, and while there they rented a house for the coming year. Prof. Ensign will be principal of the school at Newport for the coming year and the family will move there Thursday of this week preparatory for the opening of school.

Ivan Shunk has purchased an acre of ground of G. Southern. The ground is set mainly to fruit trees and Shunk moved a dwelling house on to it Tuesday of this week. The building was purchased from C. M. Davis, being a small one located on his lot in town.

Springdale school opens next Monday, September 15, and the teachers for the term are Mrs. W. R. Stanley, principal, and Miss Bertha Pann, primary.

The George W. Nichols residence, which has been undergoing exterior remodeling the past two weeks, has been completed. The entire building has been covered with siding, a new porch added and large windows put in with several changes as to position. Ed Hyder was the carpenter on the job. Later the interior will also be remodelled and modernized.

The last word from Sergeant Clayton Almind received by his mother, Mrs. W. G. Alford, was a card written aboard the troop train August 28, as he was enroute from Camp Merritt, N. J., to the demobilization camp at Camp Dix. Almind arrived from overseas August 26th, and is hoping for a speedy release. Mrs. Alford received two fine vases from her son the past week that he sent from Brest, France, prior to sailing for the United States. The vases are French "75" shells engraved in tulip pattern, and are beautiful souvenirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoke Elliott returned Wednesday from Santa Rosa, where they spent several weeks. Mr. Elliott is at present confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

The "Golden West" thresher pulled in Sunday from the San Joaquin and the crew will have a ten days' lay off before resuming work again.

Mrs. W. G. Lewis departed Thursday in company with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hill, of Santa Ana, on a trip to Columbus, Ohio, their old home. The party expect to be gone six weeks or two months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vandruff and family were Pomona visitors on Sunday.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Sept. 10.—Rev. E. J. Harlow of Santa Paula, formerly pastor of the Christian church of this place, has returned to Huntington Beach for a limited time and will occupy the pulpit of his former church while here. Mr. and Mrs. Harlow have many friends here and it is hoped they may remain here.

Rev. Samuel Hughes, who has recently returned from France with the Y. M. C. A., gave an address at the M. E. church Sunday evening to a large audience. His text was, "Render Unto Caesar the Things That Belong to Him and Unto God the Things That Belong to God." He spoke very pointedly about the church drifting into materialism and forsaking God, or the rendering unto God the things that belong to Him at the same time that Caesar is receiving. He contended that all hyphenated Americans who are not satisfied with our country and the salutary laws under which we live, should be deported to the country from which they came. He condemned in the strongest terms the Sinn Fein movement in this country as being a German movement using the Irish Catholics as tools to destroy the good relations between the United States and Great Britain.

Henry Ashman spent last week in Riverside helping his son-in-law, D. E. Dobbins, pack his household effects and move to Pasadena where he (Dobbins) expects to make his home, having purchased a place there. Ashman says he was very much affected with the heat at Riverside and was glad to get back to the beach again.

Horse Gets Into Machinery Shed and Kills Self

WESTMINSTER AND SMELTZER, Sept. 10.—J. J. Graham was unfortunate in losing one of his span of big blacks Sunday night by a peculiar accident.

About 8 o'clock Graham heard a noise out at the granary and upon investigation found the horse in a large shed where all his machinery and farm implements were stored. He returned to the house for a light to try to see how to extricate it, and by the time he returned the horse was dead.

It had first become entangled in a small cultivator and had fallen onto a large derrick fork which pierced the heart, causing almost instant death.

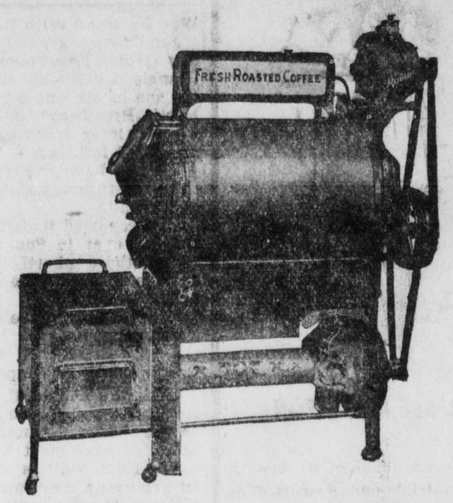

A number of horses were pastured in the field in which the granary stands, and the door had been accidently left open.

Torosa Rebekah Lodge will give dance Wednesday evening at I. O. O. F. Hall for benefit of Orphans Home. 25c admission.

Here's How Folks!
SO many people have asked how we can sell such an excellent quality of Coffee at the price we do. Here's the answer:

FIRST—We handle ONLY pure unadulterated coffee (no substitutes) scientifically blended in our Los Angeles warehouse.
SECOND—A man who KNOWS HOW roasts the coffee fresh daily. This eliminates any possibility of stale coffee. The chaff is extracted, assuring you clean coffee.
THIRD—It is ground fresh, just as you need it. We do not carry any ground coffee at all.
FOURTH—We buy direct from the importer for a number of stores, thus cutting out "in between" profits, holding the price down and keeping the quality up.
FIFTH—The quality and price are always right. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

SUES FOR $2799 ALLEGED OWING IN BEAN DEAL

Suit Is Begun By Smeltzer Grower Against C. C. Collins Company

Involving the sum of $2,799.76, alleged to be an unpaid balance on a delivery of 72,720 pounds of beans raised in 1918, an action has been instituted in the Superior court by Attorneys F. O. Daniel and Clyde Bishop for Henry Winters of Smeltzer against the C. C. Collins Company, prominent shippers of this city.

Payment of $5,563.04 has been made on the delivery, according to the complaint on file today with the county clerk. Reimbursement for the balance alleged to be due has been asked, but has not been forthcoming, the plaintiff sets forth.

Contracts Whole Crop, Claim

The Collins Company, according to the complaint, contracted for Winters' 1918 crop of re-cleaned limas at an alleged price of 11½ cents per pound.

By October 20, 1918, as per the alleged contract, Winters claims he delivered at the Golden West Celery and Produce Company's warehouse at Smeltzer 71,760 pounds of beans and on October 22, 1918, he says he delivered 960 additional pounds.

Alleges Receipt Given

The plaintiff was issued a warehouse receipt for all beans delivered, he avers in his complaint. On December 17, 1918, the receipt was delivered to the Collins Company and was accepted, according to the plaintiff.

Winters demands as judgment the $2,799.76 he alleges to be remaining due him from his crop, all of which he says he contracted to deliver to the defendants, except sixty sacks reserved for seed.

TOBACCO HABIT DANGEROUS

says Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug of Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo; the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result.

TWO IN CRASH AT DEATH'S POINT IN HOSPITAL

Women Who Were Injured Near La Habra May Die; 2 Others In Wreck

Two women, Mrs. Leslie Longley and Miss L. Moody, of St. Louis, are hovering between life and death at the Fullerton hospital today and two other persons, Leslie Longley, husband of Mrs. Longley, and Mrs. Mary Nash of San Diego, are suffering from serious, though it is believed not fatal, injuries as the result of an automobile accident near La Habra.

Mrs. Longley, who sustained a crushed chest and other internal injuries, was stated at the Fullerton hospital today to be the most severely injured of the victims of the accident. Practically no hope is held out for her recovery. Miss Moody, who sustained the fracture of two ribs and a broken right hand, in addition to a crushed chest, may possibly recover.

Woman Will Recover

Longley is suffering from heart shock and many bruises. His condition is not serious. Mrs. Nash's injuries consist of two broken ribs. Her condition is stated to be serious, though she has chances of recovery. She will be confined to the hospital for at least three weeks, it is stated.

The accident occurred at a cross road near La Habra when one of the stages running between San Diego and Los Angeles, north bound, said to be owned by the A. R. G. Company, turned turtle. Five passengers were injured, one of whom left the Fullerton hospital soon after receiving treatment.

The Longleys and Miss Moody are tourists from St. Louis and were traveling together. They were in the rear seat of the stage.

Stage Officials Call

Instructions to spare no expense in caring for the passengers were left at the Fullerton hospital by officials of the stage line on the night of the accident.

It is stated that the collision occurred when Charles King, of Fullerton, owner and driver of a large truck, attempted to turn the corner and the stage driver, in order to avoid a crash, ran his car up on the side of a bank.

When the stage stopped it turned slowly over, its four wheels being in the air when rescuers arrived.

AUTO CRASH TRIAL IS SET FOR SEPT. 25

An action for $275 damages, brought by I. J. Owens against Grace and John Gebhardt as the result of an automobile accident in November, 1918, is on the calendar in the justice court today for trial at 10 a. m., September 25.

The complaint alleges that a truck driven by Owens was run into by an automobile driven by Grace Gebhardt on North Main street, near the city limits.

The defendant is accused of carelessness in driving an automobile that is alleged not to have been equipped with skid chains. Further, Owens declares that the defendant was driving on the left side of the highway, when the highway was unobstructed for a distance of 100 yards ahead.

NEWSPAPER WOMAN IS REMEMBERED IN WILL

The will of Elizabeth E. Scott, who died in this city on August 30th, bequeaths two lots in Santa Ana to Miss Ray Rowan, granddaughter of the deceased, who is employed on the Orange News.

The will, filed for probate today by Attorneys Bishop & Wellington, names Miss Rowan as the executrix.

The property, according to the petition, is valued at $1500.

COURTHOUSE NEWS

KIDDIES, PAWNS IN SUIT, SEE MOTHER SWOON

With hysterical cries of "I want my baby," Mrs. Mary Meyer, plaintiff in a divorce action instituted by her against Lawrence Meyer, sank to the floor of the superior court today suffering from what was pronounced by a physician as a severe nervous chill.

Surrounding Mrs. Meyer were the three young children of the couple, who gazed wide-eyed as their mother lay moaning and weeping in the aisle of the court room.

The couple are residents of Placentia.

Breaks Down.

Mrs. Meyer broke down following the continuance of the trial of the action until 9:30 a. m., September 19.

L. W. Blodgett of Huntington Beach is counsel for Mrs. Meyer, and Clyde Bishop, attorney for the defendant.

Following a statement by Blodgett that Meyer had contributed only $10 during the past five weeks toward the support of his wife and three children, it was arranged between the attorneys on the one hand and Meyer on the other that the latter contribute $25 to aid Mrs. Meyer until the date of the trial. Meyer wrote the check in court.

Attorneys Concur.

Attorney Blodgett made the request for the continuance. He stated that the mother of Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Foster of Long Beach, had gone to Bakersfield and was unable to be present today. The testimony of Mrs. Foster was vital to Mrs. Meyer's case, Blodgett stated. Attorney Bishop stated that the presence of Mrs. Foster was also deemed necessary by the defense. Bishop asked that the trial be set for as early a date as possible, owing to the fact that the case had been pending for some time and that it was necessary that the disposition of the couple's children be determined soon.

Judge West granted an order authorizing the taking of Mrs. Foster's deposition in Kern county.

PLAYHOUSE KING MEETS DEMAND OF PATRONS

With a record matinee crowd at the West End yesterday afternoon and his theater swamped with patrons in the evening, Manager Schlesinger proved himself equal to the occasion and relieved the situation that developed by reason of the holiday.

Those who remained at home sought recreation in the afternoon by attending the matinee. In the evening the picnickers of the day returned to their home all excitement because of the joyous time at the park and were not content to remain at home. They finished the day by going to the theaters.

When the hour for starting the program at the West End arrived, the manager found his amusement place packed to capacity, with hundreds of others waiting in line to get a chance to enter. The situation appealed to Schlesinger and he decided on relief action. He did not want to see the crowd stand in line for the second performance and he announced that those waiting would be entertained at the Temple.

With the hustle characteristic of the manager he got his Temple operating force together and by 8:15 p. m. he had a film going at this place, playing to a packed house.

The same program that was given at the West End was run at the Temple, Schlesinger taking the films from the West End as fast as they were run and putting them on at the Temple. Dorothy Gish, in "Nobody at Home" was the feature and it will be given again tonight at the West End only.

OIL SPOUTS 75 FEET FROM BIG NEW GUSHER

Throwing oil and sand a distance of 75 feet above the derrick, Kraemer well No. 1, of the Standard Oil Company, came in, adding a new gusher to the Fullerton field.

Having had experience with several gushers in the Fullerton field recently, the crew was prepared and quickly had the gusher under control.

It is estimated that the new well is flowing 5000 barrels daily. This estimate is based on the number of feet the oil was thrown in the air.

Many persons visited the gusher on the day it began flowing and considerable excitement was caused in the Fullerton section by this latest addition to the number of producing wells.

Hopes of stockholders interested in many wells being drilled in the vicinity of Kraemer well No. 1 are running high.

Trailer Tongue Hits Man Chaperoning Load of Hogs, Claim

THAT he was rammed in the back by the tongue of a trailer containing a number of hogs he was watching while seated on the rear seat of an automobile ahead, the ramming being the result of the automobile being struck by another, is the assertion contained in a complaint filed for Lyon McKinney by Attorney B. E. Tarver against Maude Keller.

In the complaint, on file with the county clerk today, McKinney asks $2700 damages as a result of the accident, which he declares occurred on September 10, 1918, fifty feet north of the Southern Pacific crossing on the highway half way between Santa Ana and Anaheim.

The automobile hauling the trailer was driven by Earl Goodnight, according to McKinney. The plaintiff says he was in the back seat with his feet thereon, "watching and preventing said hogs," to use the words of the complaint, "from escaping from said trailer."

The alleged collision caused the trailer tongue to hit the plaintiff "in and about the region of the fifth lumbar vertebra," the complaint says.

As a result of his injuries, McKinney asserts, he suffered from pains in his head, his eyes became weak and he has since been unable to perform ordinary physical work.

DIVORCE ACTION BROUGHT

With Attorney J. C. Burke as her attorney, Sadie C. Sweeney has brought an action for divorce against Michael J. Sweeney.

WEST IS WINNER IN SCHOOL HEAD CASE

It was deemed practically certain today that no appeal would be taken by members of the Pasadena board of education from the opinion that has been handed down by the Appellate Court in Los Angeles upholding a contract whereby John Franklin West, brother of Superior Judge Z. B. West of Santa Ana, would continue as superintendent of the Pasadena schools for a period of four years.

Briefly, the circumstances in the case are that the board of education preceding the present board entered into a contract with West under which he was to act as superintendent for four years. The new board desired to appoint another in West's place and an action was brought by the board, seeking to set aside West's contract.

No appeal will be taken by the Pasadena board, judging from expressions made by members regarding the Appelate Court opinion. The question is settled, it appears, and West will be the superintendent of Pasadena's schools for four years. According to J. H. Howard, city attorney of Pasadena, there will be no appeal unless it is deemed advisable because of lack of clarity in the decision on moot points involved. It is not known whether the Pasadena board has as yet had an opportunity to review the text of the court's findings.

Those who have seen the decision regard it as a full and complete decision on all points in the case.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

The Year's Most Pleasing New Sedan

THE season offers no other sedan so pleasing in the beauty of its lines and its furnishings, as the new series Chandler Sedan. And there is none that may be compared with it at anything like its price.

The new Chandler Sedan is the highest expression of years of development in the creation of closed bodies. It is beautiful to look at, and most comfortable to ride in. It has style and refinement that must appeal to those who care for the finer things.

This car seats seven persons most comfortably or five when auxiliary chairs are not in use. The front seat is solid, not divided as in previous models, and the window posts are a permanent part of the body, not removable. The windows, however, may be lowered away or adjusted to suit the weather and the wish. The entire interior is upholstered in finest quality silk-plush of pleasing pattern for cushions and plain tone for head lining. Interior fittings are in dull silver finish.

Despite the largest production in the history of the C[illegible] company, the demand for the new series sedan will quickly consume the production for weeks to come. Your early order will be a safeguard against disappointment.

THIRTY THOUSAND GREET COUNTY'S SERVICE MEN

Governor Stephens Pays Homage to War Heroes

HUMOR OF YANK ARMY RELATED BY CHAPLAIN WILLIAMS

Audience Is Told Intimate Details of Boys on Battlefield

Simply and unaffectedly, yet with a sincerity that carried conviction, Rev. Robert Williams, himself an Orange county man, who served in the world war, first as an enlisted man and later as a chaplain, gave an address at the Welcome Home celebration, in which he touched upon the pathos and agony, oftentimes relieved by the "Yanks'" divine sense of humor, which America's heroes went through on the battle fields of France.

What Chaplain Williams had to tell was the result of first-hand experience. In phrases that could have been uttered only by a man who himself had felt the handclasps of wounded and dying comrades—only by a man who himself had been made to smile by the irrepressible humor of the men in olive drab in the face of death itself,—the speaker gave his hearers something of the spirit that moved the Americans as they went forward in their irresistible onward rush against the forces of militarism and autocracy.

Traces American's War Moves

Chaplain Williams held his audience from the very beginning of his address, as he traced the gradually increasing momentum the Americans gained under General Pershing in their herculean tasks of perfecting an army that would swing the balance of favor of the Allies.

The speaker told how the American scale of operations in France and Belgium grew, little by little, until that time, soon after Chateau Thierry, when men and munitions were available in numbers sufficient to permit Field Marshal Foch to assume the offensive and keep it until the Germans were forced to sue for peace.

"We must never forget the parts our Allies played in the war," Chaplain Williams said.

After the speaker had gone over the battles on such fronts as St. Mihiel and the Argonne, leading up to the victorious march of the Allied armies on to German soil, he said:

"To my mind, the greatest victory of all was indicated to me as the Entente armies were marching into Coblenz. There, the Stars and Stripes were seen waving over the double eagle of the flag of Prussia."

At this point he was interrupted by cheering.

"That American flag, floating there, seemed to say that when that time came when the Prussian flag could be replaced by the flag of a German republic, guaranteeing that Prussian militarism was forever crushed, when that time came, then the American flag in Germany would come down. For we did not come as conquerors into Germany. We did not come with any idea of subjugating the people of the country. We came solely as an army representing a people whose unshakable conviction it is that right must prevail over might in the world."

Chaplain Williams told of one occasion, during the Argonne campaign, when, five minutes before the Americans were to go "over the top," he came to a soldier kneeling in tears beside a still form covered by a shelterhalf. The chaplain ceased his labors of helping to evacuate wounded from the field and asked the soldier the reason for his tears.

"He is my brother," the soldier said, smply, and asked that Chaplain Williams see that the dead man be given proper burial. Busy as he was, the chaplain gave the promise and the brother of the slain man went into the fight, lighter of heart in knowing that one who [illegible] him would be given the [illegible] deserved.

Stephens Presents First Medal to Orange Soldier

WITH the eyes of thousands of people fixed upon them, Gov. Stephens presented the first of the Orange County War Service Recognition Association medals to be given out, to Lieut. Clyde Slater of Orange. The deep sincerity and friendliness of Gov. Stephens, his genuine human sympathy, made the brief ceremony impressive. His is a personality that carries with it the strong emotions of the heart, and no man in California feels deeper than Gov. Stephens the desire to honor the men who wore American uniforms during the great war.

Declaring that Orange County wsa very proud of the fact that the governor had given up all other calls for the day, and had joined with the people of Orange County in their recognition exercises, R. L. Bisby spoke the words of introduction of the governor.

Following the address, Chairman Bisby turned over to the governor one of the medals that are to be forever lasting tokens of the spirit of Orange County people toward the men who went to war.

The appearance of Gov. Stephens and Lieut. Slater side by side upon the platform, the governor with the medal in his hand extended toward the service man was a signal for the clicking of cameras and moving picture machines.

Expressing his thankfulness for the return of so many of the men, glorifying the memory of those who rest in fields of poppies overseas, the governor presented the medal to Lieut. Slater, 'mid applause.

In reply, Lieut. Slater, selected by the service men for the honor of receiving the first medal, declared that the returned soldiers and sailors deeply appreciated the demonstration and in the medals presented to them. He said that the medals would be cherished, and kept always by the men as souvenirs of the day, expressing to the men the fact that in their service they were backed up by the people at home.

Governor Lauds Spirit of California Fighting Men In Admission Day Speech

"We are here today," said Governor W. D. Stephens in his afternoon address, "to do honor to those men who have returned from war service, and never shall we forget those services, rendered in a splendid spirit and in a splendid way. I only wish that they could have had the opportunity to lick hell out of Germany. That is my only regret in the ending of the war.

"I am here today to salute the veterans of the G. A. R., the veterans of the Spanish war, and the veterans of the war that has just passed into history."

Governor Stephens' address had as its basis the fact that yesterday was California's Admission Day, the anniversary of the day that the state was admitted to the Union. He combined the anniversary idea with the stirring thought of service as exemplified by the presence of the men who were with the colors in this last war.

"California celebrates today," said he, "the sixty-ninth anniversary of her admission to statehood. With every commonwealth, entrance into the Union must have been the occasion of profound rejoicing, for there was instinct in the pioneers who founded new states, a love of self-government which was incompatible with an inferior, territorial status and which chafed under federal jurisdiction over local affairs. Such conditions were felt in an extraordinary degree in California, situated on the western rim of the continent, peopled by bold and adventurous spirits and separated from the older states by desert wastes and formidable mountain ranges, across which as yet no railroad had found its way.

Will Is Irresistible

"Its physical and political isolation was an obvious disadvantage and upon that disadvantage difficulties of adjustment were imposed, growing out of intense sectional jealousies that then prevailed between the North and the South, each seeking to obtain and perpetuate control of the federal government. But the will and purpose of the pioneers proved irresistible. They overcame all obstructions, swept aside all objections, organized their state government, adopted their constitution and presented themselves at Washington with a demand for admission to the Union.

"On this day, sixty-nine years ago, Millard Fillmore then being president of the United States, the act of admission was signed and a new star added to the constellation of the states.

"Thrice in these years has California been called upon to play her equal part with her sisters in armed assertion of the rights of the republic. In the unhappy Civil war that tore the nation temporarily asunder, when the seeds of difference sown in the days of the framing of the constitution bore their bloody harvest, California stood for the perpetuity of the Union. When conditions in Cuba compelled America's intervention and the war with Spain resulted, California sent her sons to the Philippines to battle in their country's cause.

Gives Life and Treasure

"When Germany's purpose to subject the whole world to dominion, drew the United States to the rescue of free institutions in their darkest hour of common peril, California spared neither life nor treasure in her purpose to safeguard the liberties of mankind. If rights of inestimable value were won when California was admitted to the Union, sixty-nine years ago this day, obligations as sacred were incurred, and as we have always vigilantly guarded the one, so we have always zealously discharged the other.

"From generation to generation the torch of progress is handed on, and woe to the generation that suffers the light to be extinguished. We cannot sleep upon the honors that were won by the pioneers and their earlier successors. As in courage and wisdom they discharged the problems of their day, so in equal patriotism, and purpose, we must give the best that is in us to the right solution of the problems that in our turn we are called upon to face, dealing with them loftily, not as partisans, but as Americans.

Must Face Responsibility

"California cannot escape this responsibility if it would, and I would not have it make such escape if it could.

"We cannot better celebrate the birthday of our beloved state, we cannot better honor the memory of the gallant men and women who were the builders of the commonwealth, we cannot better honor the achievements, the patriotism and the loyalty of the men of California who are just returning from their noble service in their country's defense, nor can we better honor the proud memory of our heroic sons who gave their lives for their country's flag than by united and whole-hearted support of whatever rightly makes for the lasting security of the republic, the establishment of enduring peace amongst the nations of the earth, and the creation of a new era in which all mankind shall know the happiness of a warless world."

WEDDING PAVES WAY TO CASE DISMISSAL

The case of Ramon Fernandez, charged with a criminal offense against Jacinta Contreres, was dismissed in the justice court upon request of Deputy District Attorney Nelson. The girl is 15 years old and she was married to Fernandez in San Diego on August 17. The mother of the girl, Mrs. Jose Contreres, desired that the charges against Fernandez be dropped, in view of his marriage to the girl.

CORNERSTONE OF MEMORIAL ARCH LAID BY GOV. STEPHENS

Great Tribute Paid Service Men In Heart Gripping Address at Park

With heads bared to the sunshine of a radiant September day, in a hush of impressive solemnity, Orange county did homage to its heroes yesterday by standing silently and reverently as the governor of California laid the cement sealing the cornerstone of the memorial arch to be erected by the county in honor of those who served their country in the world war.

Hearts were full as the ceremonies progressed. There were but few speakers, and the exercises were simple in the extreme, yet everyone of the hundreds who crowded closely around to hear every word and to see every act gave absolutely undivided attention.

The depth of the significance of the occasion was felt by all—that was evident in the gravity written on every face.

Band Sounds Keynote

It was the strains of the Star Spangled banner, with which the ceremonies began, which sounded the keynote of the spirit of the occasion. Soldiers in uniform—and there were many in the throng, though they had not been required to attend the celebration in military garb—stood stiffly at attention as the nation's anthem was being played, while former service men who had come in civilian clothes stood silently with bared heads, as did hundreds of citizens who though they had not been in the service, did their part to help the country in its struggle against autocracy.

Heart-gripping in the extreme was the brief address made by Governor William D. Stephens preceding the laying of the cornerstone. The governor might himself have been a native of Orange county, so feelingly did he put into words of the utmost simplicity, yet of profound emotion, all that was in the hearts of the hundreds who listened.

Pays Loving Tribute

Voicing the thoughts and emotions of the thousands who were at the Orange County Park, Governor Stephens paid a tribute to the service men and women such as has seldom been paid by an executive of this state.

There was a touch of profound sadness as the governor said:

"We would be remiss in our duty as citizens of America were we to forget, even for a brief instant, the memory of those who lie on the hillsides of France, beneath the poppies."

The speaker could barely conceal his emotion as he uttered these words. Though he did not mention any name, there were many in the audience who knew when he spoke of "the dearest boy in the world to me," died in France, that the governor's heart was

Capt. N. M. Holderman Wires Thanks For Handsome Medal

CAPT. N. M. Holderman, the idol of Orange county, the man who took Orange county's company of soldiers into camp, and who is loved by every soldier who served under him in camp or on the battle fronts, was not permitted relief from his duties to be here and participate in the celebration, but his heart was here. He sent the following telegram to R. L. Bisby, expressing his appreciation of the medal forwarded to him with his wife when she went to San Antonio, Texas, to visit him for a couple of weeks:

R. L. Bisby,
Santa Ana, Cal.

Wife arrived with magnificent medal. Cannot begin to express my appreciation. Have made every effort to arrive there by the 9th of September, but impossible. I am sure that the efforts of Orange county in behalf of the soldiers is sincerely appreciated by them. Our regards to Orange county, and a day long to be remembered.

HOLDERMAN.

AUTOMOBILES JAM ROAD TO COUNTY PARK

Santa Ana and all of Orange county took a day off yesterday, and this was no more forcibly brought to public attention by any incident of the celebration than the automobile jam on the road to Orange County Park.

In a business way, not a wheel turned throughout Orange county that didn't have to turn, the business men evidencing their loyalty and appreciation of the sentiment of the day by closing up their places of business.

How many automobiles were at the park? How many people are in attendance? These questions were frequently heard at the park. One man's guess is as good as another's. The attendance was variously estimated at from 20,000 to 30,000.

In the rush between 10 and 1 o'clock machines were jammed in a solid single and double line from the foot of the first hill by way of the Villa Park grades back south of what is known as the Huberman place on the boulevard leading from El Modena, and on the Villa Park road back nearly to the creek. Safety first was the motto of the officers who were placed at the foot of the grades to see that the drivers of cars kept a respectable distance and exercised care in negotiating the grades. And to this organization, it may be said that not an automobile accident of any consequence happened either going or coming. One jitney lost a wheel near the second

GREAT THRONG SHOWS ITS APPRECIATION OF SERVICE DURING WAR

THE 2000 or more Orange county men and women who laid down their civil occupations to take up arms against the enemy in the world war, today know full well the appreciation of those services held by the population of Orange county.

Not less than thirty thousand of the home people were at the county park yesterday to demonstrate in full to those boys and girls the hearty appreciation of the heroic efforts and the sacrifices they made in behalf of the homes of free America.

The home people were there with hearts full of gratitude and no opportunity that would indicate it to the individual wearer of the khaki, was lost. The soldiers were uppermost in the minds of everyone and on every hand they were the recipients of special courtesies. Automobiles were at their disposal for transportation to the grounds and family groups extended hospitality to the men by inviting those who had no family connection to join them in discussing the contents of lunch baskets that fairly groaned with delicacies prepared for the occasion.

The occasion was graced by the presence of the governor of this great state, Gov. Wm. D. Stephens, who came south to express his personal appreciation of the service rendered by the Orange county heroes. It was a compliment to the men and to the county that was appreciated, for the Governor was in Orange county joining with her people in paying homage to these men, when one of the largest state celebrations ever held by the Native Sons of the Golden West was being staged in San Francisco.

If there has been doubt in the minds of any of the people of the county as to whether there would be a crowd at the park for the big celebration, that doubt was dispelled early yesterday morning—as early as 6 o'clock, when machines commenced to roll into the park in numbers. It was the "early birds" who saw the handwriting on the wall and knew that the people would be there in throngs, and they made the drive early in the morning to avoid the rush that they knew would follow in the later hours of the morning.

Affair May Never Be Duplicated.

The attendance and the success of the enterprise probably never will be duplicated in this county—for it is improbable that a similar occasion ever again will arise. It is devoutly wished by every resident of the county that there never will come a time when the people will be called upon to extend a "welcome home" to men and women returning from war.

R. L. Bisby and his corps of mn and women who have backed him in his plans for carrying out the celebration, made those plans on an extensive scale, and notwithstanding the magnitude of the undertaking and the hundred and one details that were necessary to work out, there was not a hitch along the whole line, and the precision with which each worked out through the day is a compliment to the executive abality of the man who had the responsibility.

Bisby has performed a service to the county that should be appreciated by everyone. With his heart in the movement to honor the heroes and selected by representative men as the man who could put the proposition over, he turned his every energy to carrying out the wishes of those respensible for the Orange County War Service Recognition Association, and for three months past had given his time and services devotedly to the cause of honoring the former wearers of the khaki.

It was a throng of happy, good natured people that crowded the pretty park, and everywhere under the beautiful live oaks could be seen little family gatherings at the noon hour when lunch was enjoyed.

Ice cream and ice cream cones, 100 gallons of ice cream and 5000 cones, furnished by the Excelsior dairy, 500 gallons of lemonade, between 800 and 900 gallons of coffee—these were the refreshments furnished by the committee and in addition there was a soda pop booth operated by Fred Seifert, custodian of the park, doughnuts and coffee by the Salvation Army, tobaccos by the K. C. and the regular park stand to help take care of the individual

"I Am Sixty Today"

The time is coming when you will say: "I am 60 today.

You will either look back with bitter regret to the time when you could have made financial preparations—and didn't— or will enjoy the satisfaction of seeing a balance of four figures in your Bank Account.

If you'll do your part, this Bank will provide a means whereby, ten years from now, you can have a substantial sum to your credit.

"Nothing unusual about that," you say. "Every Bank has savings accounts."

True, but every bank hasn't an account that pays interest on your money, and at the same time makes it possible for your balance to leap to $1000 in case of a death in your family—even though you have only deposited $30 or $40.

This safe, strong institution has adopted and is now offering just such a plan to you—THE VICTORY ACCOUNT.

Every feature of this new account is for your convenience. You are under no obligation to continue, once you start. You can withdraw your balance at any time.

Any one in this Bank will be glad to explain the plan in detail. Your own common sense will then tell you whether or not you should start.

BETTER DAIRIES TO COME FROM COW TESTS

Movement Toward Improvement of Herds Is Bringing Results

The movement for better cows in Orange county has advanced steadily these last few weeks. It is a movement that has the power of the Farm Bureau back of it. It is a movement that has in it opportunities for great achievements by individual farmers and dairies of the county.

Cow testing has had an excellent start here, and the results will no doubt bring all of the milk producers of the county into a better understanding of the advisability of having good stock.

"The boarders must go."

"The scrub bull must go."

These slogans are being backed up by argument by the Farm Bureau, and by practical governmental institutions.

Much interest is being shown in the "Record of Production for Grade Cows" recently instituted by the University of California. This record of production is a natural outgrowth of progress in the breeding of better commercial dairy cows and of the fact that cow testing association records have proven of immense value in the fixing of values of grade cows at recent auction sales.

Anyone at all interested in these records, and every dairyman should be, for they will result in profit to him, can get full information at the Farm Advisor's office.

At the end of a lactation period of ten months a summary is to be sent to the university farm on blanks provided for that purpose, of the production of the cow, which will be compared to the monthly reports already sent in.

Eligibility of Cows

1. Until January 1, 1922, cows may be eligible that are of either grade or "scrub" breeding. After January 1, 1922, only cows that have been sired by a registered pure-bred dairy bull will be accepted.

2. To qualify for a certificate, cows with first calf and under three years of age at time of freshening must produce in ten consecutive months a minimum of 300 pounds of butterfat.

3. Cows with second calf or more must produce a minimum of 350 pounds of butterfat.

4. In addition to the above production, a cow to qualify for the certificate must carry a calf at least five months of the ten-month period.

5. Any cow that is known to have tuberculosis will not be able to qualify for a certificate.

6. To be allowed to continue on the test, any cow in normal condition must produce a minimum of 30 pounds of fat for cows with first calves, and 40 pounds of fat for older cows, during the first month of the test.

7. The owner of cows to be entered shall agree not to use or dispose of their male offspring for breeding purposes.

The new record will be carried on in conjunction with the county cow test-

Experiments Show Some Results In Fertilization

The State Department of Agriculture Bulletin quotes the following on the effect of unbalanced fertilizers, especially unbalanced potash fertilizers:

In plat experiments on soil which had not received any phosphoric acid for fourteen years, it was observed that the best results were obtained with a combination of potash, nitrogen, and phosphoric acid, and that potash and nitrogen increased the yield more than potash alone. On soil that had received no nitrogen for fourteen years the yields were considerably greater with potash, phosphoric acid, and nitrogen than with potash and phosphoric acid only, although the potash and phosphoric acid combination produced noteworthy increases of yield.

The conclusion was reached that potash salts increase the availability of soil nitrogen and phosphoric acid to only a limited extent, of no practical significance. The effect of unbalanced potash fertilizers is, therefore, solely that of the potash. No great significance can be attached to the effect of lime fertilization on the formation of nitrates in the soil because most cultivated soils contain all the lime required.

The crops used in the experiments were sugar beets, potatoes, wheat and barley.

BEET SEED FOR 1920 PROVIDED SAYS REPORT

Government Statement Outlines Situation Concerning Big Industry

The sugar beet seed situation is discussed by the Seed Reporter, published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, shows that the seed needed for 1920 seems to be provided for. The report follows:

The total acreage of sugar beets grown for seed in 1919 as reported in the vegetable seed acreage survey of June 30, 1919, is 11,139 acres. This is a greatly increased acreage over that of any previous year. Considerable acreage, however, principally in the state of Idaho, which is one of the most important producing states, is reported as a failure or poor, because of the unfavorable growing conditions prevailing in that section this year and as a result the average yield per acre on the total acreage planted is much below normal. The average yield per acre on total acreage planted this year, based on reports received, is estimated to be 450 pounds for Idaho; 840 pounds for Montana, Wyoming, and Utah; 800 pounds for Michigan and California; and 1100 pounds for Colorado. In a few other states, where there are small acreages, the yield per acre is reported to be about normal. The average yield per acre for the total acreage planted in the United States probably will be less than 700 pounds. This is a much lower average yield than that obtained during the past three years, which is as follows: 1918, 980 pounds; 1917, 1094 pounds; and 1916, 980 pounds. A conservative estimate, based on reports received, places the total production for 1919 at approximately 7,500,000 pounds, compared with 5,900,000 pounds for 1918, 5,076,000 pounds for 1917, and 5,539,000 pounds for 1916.

Although the estimated total production for 1919 as given above is greater than that of any previous year it is not in proportion to the greatly increased acreage. It must be remembered that it is possible at this time to give only advance estimates of the 1919 production and that actual figures, which may be available later may change somewhat the foregoing comparisons.

No figures were obtained in the survey of June 30, 1919, showing the actual quantity of sugar beet seed carried over by dealers and sugar manufacturers on that date. The carry-over on July 1, 1918, as reported in the War Emergency Seed Survey of that date was 22,228,617 pounds. This carry-over together with the 1918 production of 5,900,000 pounds and the importation for the year ending June 30, 1919, of 986,676 pounds, gives a total of over 29,000,000 pounds. If from this is deducted the estimated quantity of 15,500,000 pounds required for planting the 1919 commercial sugar beet acreage, without considering other factors which might lower the stock of seed

DRAINAGE PLANS GOING AHEAD RAPIDLY

The drainage committees of the Farm Centers have been active.

Buaro Drainage District has a petition in the field being signed by the majority of property owners of that section. It will be ready to be presented to the Board of Supervisors at the next regular meeting.

The Buena Park committee met at A. Nelson's office, Buena Park, last Thursday to hear the report by J. N. Anderson on the action taken by the Board of Supervisors with reference to the new law. Upon recommendation of the district attorney, the board deemed it best for the Buena Park District to operate under the old law by which older districts of the county were organized. The committee accepted the decision of the board.

Fred Bastady was elected president of the new executive drainage committee and A. Nelson, secretary-treasurer. Nine property owners, representing every portion of the district, were appointed to wok on this committee. The law firm of Head & Rutan was retained to handle the legal end of the organization. Resolutions were drawn up thanking the Board of Supervisors for the reports on the new law and recommendations made thereon.

A petition has been drawn up by the attorney and is being circulated among the property owners this week.

Since the new Garden Grove district has been projected, a number of ranchers in the Alamitos section have expressed a desire to be included. Tests have been made showing free water close to the surface: Representatives of this section will meet with the Garden Grove committee and the County Surveyor Thursday afternoon to determine an outlet for the added acreage.

INDIAN GIVES FINE OLD SADDLE TO GIRL

TYNDALL, S. D., Sept. 10.—What without doubt is one of the finest and most valuable saddles in the state or Northwest has been presented to Miss Anna Kirk of this city by an old Indian friend. The saddle is entirely covered with beads, red, white and blue, fashioned in different designs. The saddle shows wear and evidently had been in use in the tribe for some years. The work on it indicates that many months and perhaps years were required to make the saddle and fashion the beadwork designs upon it. Miss Kirk refused an offer of $150 for the saddle, which is thought to be one of the finest examples of Indian work in existence.

SNAKE DEFEATS HAWK IN BATTLE TO DEATH

KENTON, O., Sept. 10.—Farmers near here at work in a field witnessed an interesting battle between a large chicken hawk and a snake. The hawk swooped down to the ground and caught the reptile in its talons.

The snake succeeded in getting a hold on the bird's body, burying its fangs under one of the wings. The wounds inflicted by the reptile proved too much for the hawk and after a hard fight of several minutes the odd pair fluttered to the ground, the snake being carried to safety on the body of its victim.

The hawk was dead, but held the live snake firmly in its grasp.

Smart Conversation May Be Switched From Gowns to Fattening Foods

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Being foster mother to pigs isn't confined to girls in the rural districts, but society girls as well have taken up the work of raising pork. Two of the latest to enter the field are Misses Honey and Georgia Campbell, well known in Washington society.

These girls have started an "Own-Your-Own-Pig" movement in the capitol city and have enlisted some of their friends in the endeavor. Smart talk is expected to switch from jazz music and fall gowns to pig styles and the price of fattening food.

The Campbell girls hope to place 1,000 pigs in clean back yards where the porkers will be well fed and slaughtered when they are fat. That is one way to reduce the price of pork.

Whether or not the girls will act as chambermaids to the piggies has not been announced.

CALLS MEETING BUREAU BOARD SEPT. 19TH

Owing to the absence of several directors of the Farm Bureau at this time, the president has called the regular meeting date off until Friday, September 19. All directors are urged to be present then, as many important matters will be taken up for consideration.

Mr. Drinkwater, president of the San Diego Farm Bureau, will address the meeting on the "Relation of the Farm Bureau to County Activities."

Reports will be given by the various project committees, and the subject of water conservation discussed preparatory to the annual conservation meeting to be held at Anaheim October 9th.

EXCURSION TO STATION SET FOR FRIDAY

Fertilizers and Pruning Lessons to Be Taught By Example

Friday of this week members of three farm centers of the northern part of the county are to go to Riverside to visit the Citrus Experimental Station there. The three centers taking part in the excursion are Anaheim, Fullerton and Yorba Linda.

The faculty of the Citrus Experiment Station has completed a comprehensive program on fertilizers and pruning for those who go on this excursion. From present indications, there will be a goodly number of machines from all three centers. It is hoped by those who have arranged for this demonstration that all who who possibly can get away will take advantage of the opportunity to see the results of years of experimentation. Those who have taken the trip previously pronounce it of inestimable value.

. Yorba Linda people will meet at Ley's hall at 8 a. m. Anaheim will meet at the Santa Fe depot in Anaheim and Fullerton members at the Fullerton high school at the same hour. Each group will proceed to the junction of the Santa Ana canyon road and Yorba road, where they will unite in one body at 8:30 a. m. to continue to Riverside.

The first stop will be made at Arlington Heights, where a committee will meet the traveling conference to conduct it through the Arlington fertilizer plots. Thence the machines will go to the Rubidoux station to see further fertilizer experiments. Lunch will then be spread at Fairmont Park and an address will be given by Dr. Webber immediately after.

The noon meeting will adjourn to the main station on Box Springs road. A series of pruning experiments and root stock selections will be explained by members of the faculty.

"Come prepared for a big day," says Farm Advisor Wahlberg. "Bring your lunch and invite your neighbor along who may not have a machine. The meeting will adjourn in time to return home by 6 or 7 o'clock."

BETTER DAIRIES TO COME FROM COW TESTS

Movement Toward Improving Herds Is Now Bringing Good Results

ing association work of the University of California. To qualify for a place on the register, a cow with her first calf under three years of age must make 300 pounds of butterfat in ten consecutive months. A cow with her second calf must make 350 pounds of butter-fat in ten consecutive months.

The following are the rules and regulations under which the work will be carried on:

The Regulations

1. The work of collecting the records and issuing the certificates to be done by the University of California in co-operation with the various California cow-testing associations.

2. The University of California to have absolute authority in questions as to eligibility of cows, authenticity of records, etc.

3. A feet of $1 to be paid upon application for entry of any cow, to cover cost of supervision, forms and certificates.

4. On completion of a ten-month record period the University of California will issue a certificate of record of production for cows that have qualified for the record.

Keeping of Records

1. The herd records as compiled by the various cow-testing associations are to be accepted as authentic and correct, but the University of California is to be the final judge in all questions arising.

2. Any certificate secured by fraud or misrepresentation to be cancelled if the evidence warrants.

3. The cow tester or owner of cow to send in to university farm, upon application, a detailed description of the cow, upon blanks to be supplied for this purpose by the University of California.

4. At each monthly test the tester or owner of the cow shall mail to the university farm a report of the milk production and fat of the cow for the testing day, on a blank form furnished.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

MONROVIA, Sept. 10.—The orange crop of members of the Duarte-Monrovia Fruit Exchange will return more than $600,000 to the growers this year, according to the report of the secretary, Charles M. Downs, at the annual meeting of the association. Members have already received $575,000 for their fruit this year and twenty-five cars remain to be shipped.

ESCONDIDO, Sept. 10.—Dedicated to the returned service men of the world war, the twelfth festival of Grape Day in Escondido was celebrated yesterday with 10,000 people from all parts of Southern California represented, more than 5000 coming from the city of San Diego. The festivities opened with the dedication of San Diego county's $80,000 bridge over the San Dieguito river at Bernardo, four miles south of Escondido, and which is hereafter to be known as Lake Hodges Station.

BRAWLEY, Sept. 10.—Development of nearly 15,000 acres of land west of Brawley and directly tributary to that city is to be undertaken this fall through the reconstruction of the Thistle Canal, beginning at the point of the Superstition mountains, adjoining the New River branch in a northwesterly direction for ten miles until it joins Trifolium ditch near Kane Springs. Construction on the new ditch will be begun before January 1.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 10.—Through the leadership of G. E. Parker, proprietor of one of Hollywood's leading pharmacies, the druggists—all but one—have signified an eager willingness to make Sunday a day of rest for employer and employe alike. They believe that the public will accede them this privilege and arrange, as far as possible, to do shopping on week days. Arrangements will be made to take care of emergency calls.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 10.—Charges of misconduct in office will be answered shortly by Charles C. Cole, the chief of police suspended recently by Safety Commissioner W. M. Peek, after a complaint had been filed with the Civil Service Commission by Police Sergeant Ben W. McLendon, Peek's investigator. The Civil Service Board announced that Thursday night of this week had been set as the time for Chief Cole's hearing. The latter's attorneys stated they would go to trial at that time and that they would call, among other witnesses, Commissioner Peek, Sergeant McLendon and R. A. Newell.

PASADENA. Sept. 10.—Eighteen employes of the Pacific Electric railway who have been practically marooned on Mt. Lowe since the beginning of the strike three weeks ago, obtain relief last evening when the Mt. Lowe trains resumed operation. Fifteen burros that had been used in transporting supplies to the employes also were given respite. The first cars to make the ascent carried ice, green vegetables and other foodstuffs.

"DID THE WORK FOR ME" SAYS FARMER

Joe Ellinger of Rockford, Wash., Gains Seventeen Pounds Taking Tanlac

"Tanlac put me in such fine shape that I was able to plant a big crop without hardly knowing I had done a bit of hard work," said Joe Ellinger, a well known farmer, living at Rockford, Wash., while in Murgittroyd's Drug Store in Spokane, Wash., recently. Mr. Ellinger homesteaded his place in 1880 and has been living there ever since.

"I had been bothered a good deal with rheumatism and was generally run down in health," continued Mr. Ellinger. "I didn't have any appetite to speak of and sometimes the very smell of food, or even the sight of it, turned me against it and I couldn't enjoy what I did eat and it seemed to do me no good at all. At times the rheumatic pains were so bad I couldn't even turn over in bed without first rubbing my legs till they limbered up and sometimes they would cramp and draw up so I would be in such pain I could hardly stand it. If I happened to be walking when these pains and cramps struck me I would just have to stop in my tracks, because I couldn't take another step. I was troubled with dizzy spells, too, and if I made a quick move I could scarcely keep on my feet and everything in front of my eyes would seem to go black. I couldn't get a good night's rest, either, because I was wakeful and tossed around a good deal and when I got up in the morning I felt all tired out, with no energy to do anything and I seemed to be getting worse all the time.

"I was in just this fix when I got to reading about Tanlac and decided to give it a trial to see what it might do for me and it certainly proved to be just what I needed, because since I have taken it I haven't had a single rheumatic pain and my legs don't cramp or bother me a bit now. I never get dizzy any more, either, and Tanlac sure did make my appetite pick up, and now just the smell of food makes me feel all the hungrier and I can eat anything I want and enjoy it and what I eat does me lots of good, too. I have gained seventeen pounds in weight and have plenty of energy and can go to bed at night and sleep soundly for eight or nine hours and get up in the morning feeling rested and refreshed, instead of all fagged out like I used to. Tanlac certainly did the work for me and that's why I think it's such a fine medicine and well worth recommending to others."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. Robinson, in Tustin by Tustin Drug Co., in Brea by Brea Pharmacy, in Buena Park by Regal Drug Co., in Garden Grove by O. H. Anderson and in Laguna Beach by Laguna Beach Pharmacy.—Adv.

THOUSANDS OF CARS JAM COUNTY ROADS

grade, but it was not due to a collision, according to reports.

The estimate of the number of machines varied from 3000 to 5500. Just to get some idea of the number of vehicles, Sheriff Jackson stationed Chas. Rozell of Orange and Deputy Sheriff Chas. Holbrook at the fork of the two roads leading out of the canyon to count them. The two men worked faithfully to get a tab on the machines leaving between 2 and 9 p. m. and, according to their count there were 3289 cars. Others left before the start of the count and there were more in the park when it stopped, so it is safe to say that during the day there were not less than 5000 cars in the park.

Jitneys made frequent trips from various parts of the county and there were many trucks that carried full loads. It is safe to estimate the total at an average of five passengers to a car. Five thousand cars would give an attendance of 25,000, and there are many who believe that the crowd numbered 30,000.

There are always "hogs" in a crowd. Yesterday was no exception to the rule, and during the jam on the El Modena road, hundreds of drivers played "square" and held their machines in line on the right hand side of the road. The "hogs" didn't have that fine consideration for the "other fellow" and pulled out of line and beat it to the head of the procession, traveling the left hand side of the road and frequently blocking traffic that was coming from the park.

Those who held to the correct position in line had to wait much longer than they would have had to had the "hogs" stayed where they belonged.

Parking just outside of the park was handled systematically and there was little confusion and few cars were tied up where they could not be gotten out at any time by their owners. There was room for all.

ENTER DISMISSAL IN FORECLOSURE ACTION

Notice of dismissal was entered today in an action to foreclose on a mortgage brought by B. F. Jeans and Clara Helen Jeans against the Robert Holmes Lumber Company, of Los Angeles, and J. F. and Anna B. Stanford. It was alleged in the complaint that a mortgage had been given on two lots at Anaheim to secure a $200 note. The lumber company was made a party to the action on the belief of the plaintiffs that the firm claimed to own the property.

LIVE STOCK OF COUNTY TO GO TO FAIR

Pure Bred Animals Only to Be Exhibited at Riverside October 7 to 11

The Southern California Fair, which will be held at Riverside October 7 to 11, is assuming larger proportions this year than ever before and promises to be a notable event in agricultural and livestock circles in this section of the state. A committee of prominent breeders, constituting the livestock committee of the fair, visited a number of the stock men in this county last week soliciting exhibits with the result that a number of entries of both hogs and cattle will be made from this county. An auction of pure bred livestock will be held at the Southern California Fair this year and the committee also secured a number of consignments to this sale. Only pure bred stock and of high grade will be admitted to this auction and the committee will promptly reject anything that is not individually attractive both in points and pedigree. They already have a sufficient consignment of this class of stock to guarantee a successful sale.

This is the seventh annual fair to be held at Riverside and each one has been a success both financially and as a stimulator of better stock breeding and better agricultural methods. This year a liberal list of premiums is offered by the fair association for county exhibits of products. Five hundred dollars is the first prize, $250 the second, and $125, third. In addition to these prizes communities which may form part of the county exhibit, may compete for the community prize which ranges from $175 down to $25. Orange county should enter this contest. With the vast crowds that attend this fair a splendid advertising opportunity is presented and a very good chance of winning at least as much as the cost of the exhibit.

BEET SEED PROVIDED FOR 1920 SAYS REPORT

available and suitable for planting, there were approximately 13,600,000 pounds carried over on June 30, 1919.

As is shown by the above figures a relatively small quantity of sugar beet seed was imported during the past fiscal year, only 986,676 pounds being imported compared with the average annual imports for the previous five years of 13,100,000 pounds. Should a similar situation prevail during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, the estimated carry-over of June 30, 1919, of 13,600,000 pounds and the estimated 1919 production of approximately 7,500,000 pounds, without making allowance for some other important factors, would provide a total of approximately 21,000,000 pounds for planting in 1920.

The seed required for planting in 1920 therefore appears to be provided for. Either or both domestic production and imports will have to be increased to provide seed for planting in 1921. Because of the unsatisfactory outlook for imports in the near future every effort is being made by growers to increase the production of seed in 1920 to meet the 1921 seeding requirements.

GREEKS DEFENDANTS IN CO WBARN CASE

Five Greeks are defendants in an amended complaint filed at the office of the county clerk today by Attorneys Chester Smith and J. Everett Brown of Los Angeles on behalf of George D. Packingham, plaintiff in an action brought to recover $315.50, alleged to be due on a contract for the construction of several cow barns near Buena Park.

Packingham says that in September, 1917, he contracted with the Eureka Dairy Company of Los Angeles, said to be composed of Mike and Zoe Christopolous, Gost Dalles, Gost Moropoulos and Gust Christopolous, to build a number of cow barns on the Twin Barn ranch, located one and a half miles south of Buena Park.

Another contract was entered into in October, 1917, according to Packingham. In February, 1918, Packingham says, he filed notice of a lien on the property.

The $315.50 demanded by the plaintiff he alleges to be due him for labor.

M. of September 16th, 1919, for the construction of a garage building at the County Farm, for the County of Orange. Plans and specifications for this work are on file in the office of said Board, to which bidders are hereby referred. All bidders will be afforded opportunity to examine such plans, specifications and working details and said Board will award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, and the person, firm or corporation to whom the contract shall be awarded must perform the work in accordance with said plans, specifications and working details unless the same be modified by the Board of Supervisors in the manner provided by law.

The successful bidder will be required to enter into a contract with the County of Orange for the performance of said work within ten days after such contract is awarded to him, and to complete the same within sixty days thereafter. Bond for the faithful performance of said contract, equal to twenty-five per cent of the total amount thereof, together with a bond for the security of materialmen and laborers, equal to fifty per cent of the amount thereof, will be required of the contractor.

Right reserved to reject any and all bids.

(SEAL) J. M. BACKS,

County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Orange County, California.

CORNERSTONE OF MEMORIAL ARCH IS LAID

Governor Stephens Makes Heart Gripping Address at Ceremony

full of the memory of his son-in-law, Major Zane, who was killed in the Marne offensive.

Worthy of World's Honor

"The service men of this country performed achievements worthy of the greatest honor that the world can give them," the governor said. "The people who did not go to France, as well as those who came back, can honor the dead by living a life of service to their fellow men and country, and thus win in a measure a small part of the glory which was theirs."

Governor Stephens referred to bolshevism, which, he said, existed to a certain extent in America.

"Those who brook bolshevistic utterances in this country," the governor said, "are themselves traitors to their flag."

The speaker, as on several occasions, was interrupted by loud applause at this point.

"There is now on the statute books of this state," the speaker continued, "a law which the man who now stands before you succeeded in having passed—a law, which if enforced by the officers of California, would stamp out every trace of bolshevism."

Applause again greeted the speaker.

Owes Debt of Gratitude

Referring to the appreciation felt by the people of America for the soldiers, sailors and marines who made victory against Germany possible, the governor said that the world owed them a debt of gratitude which could never be adequately repaid.

The ceremony of laying the cornerstone was preceded by a brief address by R. L. Bisby, chairman of the Orange County War Service Recognition Association, to whose untiring efforts the success of yesterday's huge celebration was largely due. Bisby gave a brief outline of the program as it had been laid out for the cornerstone exercises and followed this by a reading of the list of articles to be placed in the copper box which was to be sealed and placed in the cornerstone. As Bisby read off the items on his list the articles were placed in the box.

Among the articles placed in the cornerstone were copies of each paper in Orange county preceding yesterday's celebration; a roster of the members of the War Service Recognition Association; reports from the various war work organizations of the county, including the Armenian Relief Society, the County Council of Defense, the War Savings Stamp societies, the Women's Liberty Loan Committee, the Main Liberty Loan committee, the Women's County Council of Defense, the Red Rross, and Exemption Boards, Numbers 1 and 2.

Historical Value

Of particular historical value among the articles placed in the cornerstone was one of the victory medals distributed yesterday to the service men. In the box containing this medal was a list of Orange county men and women who gave their lives in the service of the country.

One of the most effective features of the ceremonies was the presentation of a gold trowel to Governor Stephens by T. B. Talbert, chairman of the county Board of Supervisors.

After giving a brief outline of the purposes of the ceremonies yesterday, Chairman Talbert, in presenting the gleaming souvenir to Governor Stephens, said:

"This golden trowel will be used in cementing together this cornerstone, Governor Stephens, in behalf of the people of Orange county, I take great pleasure in presenting you with this trowel that you may seal the cornerstone that is to be placed as a monument and part of the foundation upon which is to be built a memorial arch at this spot."

Dips Gold Trowel in Cement

Though the governor used a regulation mason's trowel to distribute cement on the bottom block of stone, he later dipped the souvenir trowel in the cement, a symbolical act which was deeply appreciated by the onlookers.

Following the placing of the record box in the hollow of the lower block of stone, the upper block was placed in position by four men in uniform.

"Everybody stand still for a moment," Chairman Bisby ordered, and shortly a volley was fired by a squad of soldiers of Company F, First Btatalion, California National Guard, in command of Captain A. E. Koepsel and Lieutenant Jesse Elliott. Uniformed men stood at attention as the shots were fired and civilians stood uncovered.

During the ceremonies several airplanes of the Syd Chaplin Aircraft Corporation of Los Angeles circled in the air above, doing a number of thrilling aerial evolutions.

MAN FACING ROBBERY CHARGE TAKES BRIDE

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 10.—The criminal court room of Ohio county was the scene recently of a wedding.

The groom was William J. Elliott, who is being held on a charge of robbery. The bride, believing in the man's innocence, consented to the ceremony being performed while he was still a prisoner.

The prosecuting attorney of the county, who will try to fasten the guilt on the groom; the attorney who will defend him and a newspaper reporter were present.

The prisoner and his bride stood in the position that he will occupy at the trial, and the minister was in the place that the court judge will occupy.

wants of the crowd, beyond what was supplied by the committee. The ice cream and cones, and lemonade "lasted quick" for preparation was made for only 15,000 to 20,000, and it didn't take the 30,000 long to wipe out the supply.

Gov. Stephens was complimented by the committee arranging a stake barbecue, with the heads of the different war organizations of the county being invited to participate. The individuals were assigned certain eatables to provide the lunch and the stakes were given by the Cudahy Packing company through Henry Seidel of the Gem Market. Knowing Gov. Stephens' fondness for barbecues, the affair was planned in his particular honor. Mrs. A. J. Lawton was the chairman of the committee on the governor's entertainment, and she was assisted by Miss Lulu Minter.

The stakes were prepared by Duffy and a corps of assistants and so pleased was the governor with the manner in which they were prepared with a tinge of garlic, that the state executive made it a special point to express his personal compliments to the chef. Gov. Stephens was accompanied by John MacFarland, his former private secretary and now attorney for the State Board of Health; Attorney Joe Crail, of Los Angeles, manager of the chief executive in the last campaign, and Major Walter K. Tuller, attorney of Los Angeles and organizer for the American League.

Seventy-five service men were served at the tables used in the stake barbecue for the governor, after the ables had been vacated. The men had come to the grounds without bringing their lunches.

Hostesses who assisted at the luncheon were Mmes. T. E. Stephenson, W. L. Grubb, R. L. Bisby, A. G. Flagg, and S. W. Stanley of Santa Ana; C. E. McFadden, A. F. Drake and J. W. Newell, Placentia; E. J. Marks, Fullerton; F. L. Chapline, Orange; Ida F. Dutton, Anaheim; J. G. Dunn, Garden Grove; T. B. Talbert, Huntington Beach; Nels Edwards, Orange; Wm. Schumacher, Buena Park; S. H. Finley, Santa Ana; H. A. Wassum, Tustin.

Twenty-six Orange county war time and peace organizations were represented, as follows: Service men (county and four local), Spanish American War Veterans, Boys of '61-65 (four posts), District and county exemption boards, Red Cross (six chapters), Junior Red Cross, Orange county Division of the Council of Defense, Woman's committee of the State Council, History Department of the State Council, County Liberty Loan, Woman's Committee county Liberty Loan, county food administration, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., K. C., Salvation Army, the press, Associated Chambers of Commerce, W. C. T. U., Mothers Congress and P. T. Association, Federation of Women's clubs, War Savings Stamps, County Bankers Association and the Girls' War Service League.

Members of the Girls' War Service League of Santa Ana, who served luncheon at the governor's table and who also assisted in the presentation of medals were: Miss Gertrude Montgomery, chairman, and the Misses Lucille Brothers, Gladys Burns, Lydia Fisher, Ramona Clevenger, Nell Cathcart, Iva Webber, Muriel McPhee, Helen Phillips, Oriole Hoe, Louise Montgomery, Vera Joplin, Marjorie Warner; Waive Kingrey, Eleanor Sturgeon, Elizabeth Paine and Mary Crozier.

Other young ladies who assisted in the distribution of medals were the following: Margaret Isch, Laguna Beach; Irene Smale, Los Alamitos; Nellie Adams, Villa Park; Lizzie Gothard, Wintersburg; Fern Tarbox, Huntington Beach; Florence Ford, Miss Dysinger, Fullerton; Margaret Wood, Barcus Patton, Orange; Ruth McDaviel, Yorba Linda; Lenore Stewart, Cypress; Mayme Riley, Stanton; Nellie Munger, El Toro; Fern Hill, Buaro; Dorothy Beman, Olive; Mildred Spain, Garden Grove; Mildred Forney, Bolsa; Ada Lois Short, El Modena; Lillian Martin, Tustin; Hattie Kraschel, Irvine; Mildred Richardson, Olinda; Juanita Simpson, Buena Park; Blanche Boisserane, Yorba; Frances Backs, Ruth Reed, Anaheim; Marion Webster, Gloryetta; Ethel Rodger, Newport-Balboa; Minnie Prinslow, Harper; Sadie McClain, Greenville; Helen Lucy, Placentia; Marie Hare Westminster; Madeline Sansienna, La Habra, and Reba Head, Katella.

Chief Executive in Film

Expressing the appreciation of the people of Orange county in having the governor present, Mrs. Lawton introduced him to the diners and he made brief remarks complimenting the people of the county on their spirit in honoring the men and his appreciation of the service they rendered. At the conclusion of lunch, Governor Stephens headed a procession which marched in line for a moving picture made by Cochems of Santa Ana and which will be presented later by a local theater.

The band concerts of the day were features that were enjoyed by the multitude and they assisted materially in making the event a pleasurable one. Pop Endicott of Huntington Beach was chairman of the music committee. The bands of Huntington Beach, Santa Ana and Anaheim gave concerts at different hours throughout the day, with all bands massed for a program immediately after lunch.

Preceding the address by Governor Stephens and the medal presentation, the audience joined in singing America and at the conclusion of the platform program joined in singing California. Professor Clarence Gustlin leading in each.

The K. C., in charge of Frank and Martin Biggs, passed out 2000 cigars and 22,000 cigarettes to the soldiers, a service which the men appreciated.

The Red Cross booth for taking care of the injured was in charge of Dr. H. E. Zaiser of the county hospital and nurses in attendance were Miss Iva Reid, who was overseas; Miss Mary Stroka and Miss Katherine Pohndorf. Dr. Wehrly was on duty also at the booth. Mills and Winbigler's ambulance, in charge of Ernest Winbigler was there for emergency. Fortunately there was no occasion to use it, for notwithstanding the immense crowd there was not a single accident that was anything like serious in nature.

Minor Accidents

A number of minor cases were treated at the breach, such as burns and scratches. Perhaps the most serious injury of the day was sustained by Fred Seifert, custodian of the park, who cut his left hand severely in opening a bottle of soda pop. He cut a deep gash, severing an artery and it is said that had it not been for the emergency hospital he probably would have lost a large amount of blood before he could have reached a physician at Orange or Santa Ana.

The doughnuts and coffee, such as were served by the Salvation Army at the front, were served for a time by the Salvation Army. The crowd fairly swamped the Army booth and the coffee and doughnuts were sold out almost before the booth got well under way. Captain Schute was assisted at the booth by Ensign Burton, Adjutant Spiller and Miss Ethel Lacy of Los Angeles and Cadet Idris Brumund and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Townsend of Santa Ana.

A lemonade booth was in charge of the Orange County Red Cross canteen, Mrs. J. F. Keller of Orange, being the chairman. Members from Orange, Anaheim and Fullerton served during the day, working in shifts, and, according to Mrs. Keller this morning, more than 600 gallons were dispsend. The original 500 gallons gave out early in the afternoon and more was made.

The headquarters for service men was a busy place, the men registering there and seeking information. About 1500 medals were given out at the booth, and the system arranged made the work quick and effective.

Lines were formed in each of the districts, with each indicated by the first letter in the last names of the men. The medals were stacked in piles on a counter and a large number of girls selected from different points in the county handed the medals to the men as they presented tags. It did not take over twenty-five or thirty minutes to distribute the souvenirs. Because of the rush it was impossible to give the suvenirs to many who registered only yesterday. Those who did not get the souvenir yesterday may get one by calling at the office of R. L. Bisby, in the Spurgeon building.

Major Marks, Lieut. Swanner, Lieut. Blodgett, Stanley Reinhaus, Hugh Thompson, Forest Whitson, Victor Hawk and J. C. Wallace were among the men who assisted in the medal distribution.

There was no effort made for special amusements. The cornerstone laying, the band concerts and the addresses and medal presentations being the big features of the program.

Those who did not care for the special exercises, or who could not get close enough to the center of action to enjoy them, formed in groups and passed the time pleasantly in conversation.

The little folks kept the burros, the slides, swings and boats on the lake in action all during the day.

Commencing at 4 o'clock, dancing was the center of attraction for those who indulge in this pleasing pastime. Felling's orchestra of Anaheim played at the pavilion and the Chapman orchestra of Santa Ana furnished the music for the dancers at the tennis court. A. G. Flagg, Santa Ana, was chairman of the dance committee. The pavilion was too crowded for comfortable dancing, and many found more pleasure in dancing in the open on the cement floor than in the crowded pavilion. Hundreds had supper at the park, remaining for the evening dancing.

Sid Chapman aeroplanes circled the grounds many times in the forenoon and afternoon and kept people busy watching the aerial stunts.

The day's festivities closed along about 10 o'clock, when the tired but happy "stay-lates" quit the day and wandered to their respective homes.

The event will pass as one of the greatest in the history of Orange county, and none who participated ever will forget the occasion or the men whom it was designed to honor.

AMERICA TO WORK!

Commerce and industry and farm—clear the decks for action! The world needs replenishment. It is stripped; it is hungry. Europe's cupboard is barren. Our agriculture has had to feed the world for four years, and there still are depleted storehouses to fill and hungry people to feed. Here is Orange County's great obligation and splendid opportunity.

The unrestricted labor of the farmer saved the world in time of peril. His was a rich reward. If the workers in commerce and industry now put the same effort into increased production, another crisis will be surmounted, and the prosperity ensuing will be felt in all the channels of life.

With its foundations sound—with farmer and workingman exerting all effort for increased production—America is ready for its greatest stride.

This is our greeting, invitation and challenge to the productive and constructive forces of Orange County.

HUMOR OF YANKEES TOLD BY CHAPLAIN

related by Chaplain Williams as evidencing the inexhaustible fund of wit and lightheartedness which is one of the most striking characteristics of the American soldier was one having to do with an occurence during an attack in the Argonne.

The American and German front line trenches, the chaplain said, were separteed by a distance of perhaps a half mile. The "zero hour" came and the "Yanks" climbed out of their dugouts and started forward across "No Man's Land."

All was apparently going well, when a number of Americans were seen to begin acting strangely. In the midst of their assault, with all its dangers, the Americans were pursuing a number of rabbits which had been so foolhardy as to venture out of their burrows! The American commander had reckoned without the rabbits; not until the last bunny had been chased into his hole did the "Yanks" resume the business of attacking the enemy.

Chaplain Williams closed his address, amid tremendous applause, by a ringing reference to the League of Nations. He said, in effect, that if the peace of the world were not made secure in the future, then the men who fought in France would have been betrayed.
